TEXAS A&M CORPS OF CADETS

WE MAKE LEADERS.

The Texas A&M Corps of Cadets is a premier national leadership development organization.

Leveraging a military based cultural model, cadets are developed into well educated leaders of character who are prepared for the global leadership challenges of the future.

Membership in the Corps of Cadets is available to all students at Texas A&M who are looking for a more meaningful college experience. There is no military obligation tied to your status as a cadet. In fact, over 60% of cadets go on to pursue careers in the public and private sectors after graduation.

No matter who you are, where you're from or what your goals for the future may be, the Corps of Cadets provides you with the space to create your purpose, pursue your passions and prepare for your future.

A TRADITION OF EXCELLENCE.

For over 145 years, the Texas A&M Corps of Cadets has taken students from all walks of life and made them into some of our nation's top leaders, from the classroom, to the boardroom, to the battlefield and beyond.

WHY JOIN THE CORPS OF CADETS?

HEAR FROM SOME OF OUR LEADERS ON WHAT THE CORPS HAS DONE FOR THEM:

MICHAEL RODRIGUEZ-GARZA '22 - HARLINGEN, TEXAS

"I joined the Corps of Cadets to define who I was. To me, the Corps is a place to practice discipline and develop as a leader. Over my four years here, I have been able to hone my skills and become the leader I was meant to be."

KENDALYN LYTLE '23 - BOERNE, TEXAS

"I've gained a lot from my time in the Corps, but the greatest thing that the Corps gave me was my buddy class and the relationships that I have with other Aggie Bandsmen and members of the Fish Drill Team. Without them I wouldn't have had the confidence to become the cadet that I am today."

OSCAR IBANEZ '21 - PLANO, TEXAS

"There's the old phrase, 'iron sharpens iron,' and the Corps is no exception to that. Being constantly surrounded by motivated, intelligent, head-strong men and women has striking effects on a person. Without the Corps of Cadets I would not be who I am today."

CALLIE GUEST '24 - CYPRESS, TEXAS

"The Corps has given me so many opportunities that have allowed me to develop my leadership capabilities. From freshman year to now, the growth in ability to handle a rigorous caseload, manage time and stress effectively, and lead teams is exponential."

SCHOLARSHIPS

OF ALL ELIGIBLE CADETS RECEIVE CORPS SCHOLARSHIPS

Corps scholarships range from $1,200 to $17,000 per year, and are renewable each semester.

Corps scholarships carry no military obligation, and are awarded based on both merit and need.

The Corps of Cadets currently has a $75 million scholarship endowment, ensuring that cadets can receive the financial support they need,
when they need it.

OVER 2,300 SCHOLARSHIPS
AWARDED ANNUALLY

ROTC scholarship recipients
are eligible to receive the Patriot Scholarship.

This award covers
required room and board, providing nearly a full ride to Texas A&M.

The General Murray Scholarship is an exclusive award for out-of-state students.

This award effectively reduces
total tuition and fees to be equivalent to those paid by Texas residents.

DEVELOPING LEADERS

CAREER READY, IN EVERY SECTOR.

No matter the professional industry you plan to join, employers are always looking for individuals who know how to use their talents, strengths and interests to their advantage. The Corps of Cadets works hard to ensure that each student is prepared to demonstrate their abilities as they transition out of college and into their professional roles.

FROM THE CLASSROOM, TO THE BOARDROOM, TO THE BATTLEFIELD AND BEYOND.

HOLLINGSWORTH CENTER

The Hollingsworth Center enhances students' capacities to be value-adding leaders in both the public and private sectors of the workplace. The Hollingsworth Center provides career readiness support, including internship and job assistance, to all cadets and other Texas A&M University students.

MILITARY OPPORTUNITIES

As the largest of our nation's six Senior Military Colleges, the Corps of Cadets is proud to offer military commission opportunities to those who are eligible and interested. If commissioning into the military is one of your goals for the future, we invite you to learn more about Texas A&M's ROTC programs below.

Army ROTC at Texas A&M is one of the best leadership courses in the country, continuing the long history of Aggies proudly serving in the US Army.

armyrotc.tamu.edu

Air Force ROTC Detachment 805 has a long and proud lineage of producing the highest quality officers for the United States Air Force and Space Force, with a focus on academic excellence, exceptional leadership and cadet well-being.

afrotc.tamu.edu

Naval ROTC develops midshipmen mentally, morally and physically while instilling the highest ideals of honor, courage and commitment. The program prepares young adults for leadership positions in an increasingly technical Navy and Marine Corps.

OFF THE QUAD

As part of one of the nation's largest universities, the Corps is home to students who are active all across campus. With over 1,200 student organizations, there are endless opportunities to find and pursue your passions at Texas A&M.

"Being a cadet means making a commitment to yourself and Texas A&M University to embody the core values, be a keeper of the Aggie spirit and help make the university better as a whole. I decided to start an aviation organization after I attended the Women in Aviation International Conference. I have been extremely blessed with support in my own aviation journey, so creating and leading this organization has been a special way to give back and help others start flying."

-Maria Hall '23, Squadron 23, Texas A&M Women in Aviation

NOW FORMING AT THE NORTH END OF KYLE FIELD, THE NATIONALLY FAMOUS FIGHTIN' TEXAS AGGIE BAND

As the official band of Texas A&M University, the Fightin' Texas Aggie Band is the largest collegiate military marching band in the world.

Each member of the Fightin' Texas Aggie Band is also in the Corps of Cadets. These cadets live, eat and train together on the Quad in one of six designated band units.

While membership in the Corps of Cadets is open to all students at Texas A&M, an audition is required to join the Fightin' Texas Aggie Band.
