CHAPTER 1: WHO WE ARE

The Corps of Cadets is the largest, oldest, and most visible student organization and leadership training program at Texas A&M University. It is also one of the largest uniformed bodies of students in the nation. The Corps of Cadets delivers the ultimate Aggie experience. It starts with a world-class university with over 145 years of tradition and builds on that foundation, guiding cadets in developing their leadership abilities while enjoying the benefits of being at one of the nation's premiere universities.

1. TEXAS A&M UNIVERSITY PURPOSE STATEMENT

At Texas A&M University, our students lead with innovative ideas, integrity, and a commitment to making the world a better place. We send our Aggie graduates into the world prepared to face future challenges. Our purpose is to develop leaders of character dedicated to serving the greater good.

2. TEXAS A&M UNIVERSITY CORE VALUES

The university's purpose statement carries with it the responsibility, the traditions and the forward-thinking of Texas A&M exemplified by all who are associated with the university — our faculty and staff, and our current and former students. This purpose can be defined by our six core values.

Respect: We place value in ourselves and others. We treat all with care, compassion, dignity, civility, and fairness.

Excellence: We deliver results and achieve desired outcomes that exceed expectations. We aim for outstanding achievement in what we do and say we will do.

Leadership: We set the example and embody our personal and organizational values. We are courageous and forward thinking in a way that inspires and empowers each other to propel our university forward.

Loyalty: We share a dedication to our university and its greater purpose. We remain true to each other, to our commitments and to our obligations.

Integrity: We are trustworthy and honest with ourselves and each other. We honor and follow through on commitments and expectations, holding ourselves and others accountable for our actions, behaviors, and outcomes.

Selfless Service: We work with and help others to have a positive impact; and we do so without expectation of recognition or reward.

3. CORPS OF CADETS MISSION

The Corps of Cadets develops well-educated leaders of character prepared for the global leadership challenges of the future.

4. CADET VALUES

Our values reflect what we hold to be important and guide our daily lives, especially our relationships with others. Our values shape the environment in which we live, study, and develop our leadership skills. Our Cadet Values include the Texas A&M University Core Values as well as the following values:

- A. Honor. An unwavering commitment to sound moral values and strong character.
- B. Discipline. Consistency of action within a set of standards and values.

C. Courage. The ability to physically and morally overcome fear, danger, or adversity.

5. THE CADET OATH

"I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will obey all university regulations, The Standard, and the directives of my superiors; be diligent in my studies; hold myself and my fellow cadets to the Aggie Code of Honor; remember that to be a member of the Corps of Cadets is a privilege which must be earned every day by my honorable actions; and will conduct myself in a manner that reflects great credit on the University and the Corps of Cadets, so help me God."

CHAPTER 2: THE AGGIE CODE OF HONOR

"An Aggie does not lie, cheat or steal or tolerate those who do."

1. ARTICLES OF THE AGGIE CODE OF HONOR

A. ARTICLE I

A cadet will not knowingly make any false statement, written or spoken.

B. ARTICLE II

A cadet will not impart or receive any assistance, either outside or inside a classroom or place of instruction, which would tend to give any student an unfair advantage.

C. ARTICLE III

A cadet will not take or receive any property of another person or persons, under any circumstances, without the specific authority of that person or persons.

D. ARTICLE IV

A cadet will not use evasive statements or technicalities in order to shield guilt or defeat the ends of justice.

E. ARTICLE V

A cadet will report to his/her Chain of Command and Operations Advisor all known or suspected honor violations by any cadet or cadets.

2. AGGIE HONOR SYSTEM OFFICE

A. The Aggie Honor System Office serves as a centralized organization established to educate students, faculty, and staff about the Aggie Code of Honor, respond to potential academic misconduct by Texas A&M students, and facilitate remediation efforts for students found responsible for violations of the Aggie Code of Honor.

B. All academic violations of the Aggie Code of Honor will be handled by the Aggie Honor System Office.

C. Any cadet who is contacted by the Aggie Honor System Office regarding potential Aggie Honor violations will notify Cadet Life/Academics.

CHAPTER 3: STANDARDS AND ACCOUNTABILITY

1. DESCRIPTION

Standards and accountability are essential at the personal and organizational level to achieve the Corps mission of developing well-educated leaders of character. We strive to maintain a sustained culture of exemplary individual and collective conduct that consistently and deliberately demonstrates the core values of the Corps of Cadets, the Aggie Honor Code and cadet oath.

- A. Standards of conduct for members of the Corps of Cadets are set forth in writing to give cadets general notice of prohibited conduct. These rules should be read broadly and are not designed to define prohibited conduct in exhaustive terms.
- B. Violations may result in sanctions. Any sanction imposed by the Corps of Cadets may precede and may be in addition to any penalty imposed by the university Student Conduct Office, and any off-campus authority.
- C. Cadets are responsible for knowing and following the most current Texas A&M University Student Rules.
- D. The Department of Defense employs a strict discipline code on students in ROTC programs. Essentially any student/cadet found responsible for violating University/Corps rules and regulations related to charges of Sexual Assault/Sexual Harassment (SASH), Illegal Drug Use, or Hazing cannot enroll/remains in an ROTC program. Enrollment in an ROTC program is a requirement for membership in the Corps of Cadets for freshman and first semester sophomore cadets. Accordingly, freshman and sophomore cadets found responsible for one of the above violations will be denied the ability to apply/reapply for Corps membership for the freshman year and first semester of the sophomore year.
- E. Sanctions
 - (1) Corps Conduct Probation – Not in Good Standing. An official warning that the cadet's conduct is in violation of The Standard and/or Texas A&M University Student Rules, but is not sufficiently serious to warrant dismissal or suspension from the Corps of Cadets. A cadet on this conduct probation is deemed "not in good standing" with the University. If there is a finding of responsibility for subsequent violations of the student rules during this period of time, more severe sanctions may be administered. A cadet who is not in good standing is subject to the following restrictions:
 - a. Ineligible to hold a green tab leadership position in any Corps outfit or staff or any other Corps organization.
 - b. Ineligible to represent the University in any way, including representing the University at any official function, intercollegiate athletics or any forms of intercollegiate competition or representation (i.e., Corps Sports Teams). This includes events taking place both on and off of the University Campus. Cadets may participate in mandatory Corps activities on campus (e.g., football game march-ins, Family Weekend activities, reviews, etc).
 - c. Ineligible to receive a University administered scholarship when the length of the period of not in good standing is greater than one semester. Some scholarships adhere to more strict guidelines, and, therefore, ineligibility may result from a lesser length of not in good standing. This sanction implies a serious offense and will be uniformly applied by the office administering the scholarship upon notification by the University Conduct Administrator.

- d. Additional restrictions or conditions also may be imposed, depending on the nature and seriousness of the misconduct.
- (2) Corps Conduct Probation – In Good Standing. An official warning that the student's conduct is in violation of The Standard or Texas A&M University Student Rules, but is not sufficiently serious to warrant dismissal, suspension, or a sanction of Corps Conduct Probation – Not in Good Standing. A cadet on conduct probation – in good standing shall have their conduct under review for a specified period of time. This sanction may require regular meetings with an appropriate official to ascertain and evaluate compliance with The Standard and/or Texas A&M University Student Rules. Additional restrictions or conditions also may be imposed, depending on the nature and seriousness of the misconduct. Cadets placed on this sanction remain in good standing with the University and may hold leadership positions and represent the Corps of Cadets publicly. If there is a finding of responsibility for subsequent violations of The Standard and/or the Student Rules during this period of time, more severe sanctions may be administered.

2. REPORTING STANDARDS AND ACCOUNTABILITY VIOLATIONS

It is the duty and responsibility of every cadet, regardless of class or rank, to report possible or suspected violations of any offenses through cadet channels to the Corps Standards and Accountability Director. Self-reporting of violations is encouraged. If the cadet chain of command fails to act on a suspected violation, the cadet will provide his/her report directly to their Operations Advisor, the Corps Standards and Accountability Director, or another member of the Commandant's staff.

CHAPTER 4: CADET PERFORMANCE REVIEW BOARD

1. The Cadet Performance Review Board (CPRB) reviews individual cadet performance that fails to meet the high standards of the Corps of Cadets, and makes recommendations to the Corps Commander concerning the reported cadet's continued membership in the Corps. The CPRB is convened at the direction of the Corps Commander who has the final disposition authority for each case. The Corps Standards and Accountability Director advises and supervises the organization and execution of the CPRB.
2. The CPRB is composed of eight senior cadets, two CPRB Sergeants, and a CPRB Observer.
 - A. The President of the CPRB is the Corps G-1 (Adjutant/Standards & Accountability Officer) on Corps Staff. The other seven members are senior cadets from the CPRB member pool. Seven senior cadets (excluding the CPRB President) are voting members of the CPRB.
 - B. The CPRB Sergeants are junior cadets from the CPRB Sergeant pool. The CPRB Sergeants are not voting members of the CPRB.
 - C. The CPRB Observer is a member of the Office of the Commandant Staff (normally the Corps Standards and Accountability Director). The CPRB observer is not a voting member of the CPRB.
3. The Corps Commander may convene a CPRB when a Charging Officer (Cadet Commander or Standards & Accountability Officer) submits a charge sheet detailing violations of The Standard to the CPRB President. Charging Officers may submit a charge sheet when one or more of the following criteria are met:
 - A. The Charging Officer has first-hand knowledge of a cadet who has violated the Aggie Code of Honor, violated core values, or has continually exhibited substandard performance.
 - B. The reported cadet's chain of command has attempted every other method at their disposal to correct the cadet:
 - (1) Counseling
 - (2) Demerits
 - (3) Marching Tours
 - (4) Restricted Weekends
 - (5) Removal from leadership position (if applicable)
 - (6) Behavioral Contract
 - C. There has been approval by a Minor Commander and the minor or major unit Discipline Chain. Once approved, the Minor Commander is referred to as the "Reporting Officer".
4. If the above constraints are met, the Charging Officer and Reporting Officer may submit a charge sheet accompanied by documentation relevant to the reported cadet's performance and previous attempts to correct substandard performance to the CPRB President for review. After review and consultation with the Corps Commander and Corps Standards and Accountability Director, the CPRB President will inform the Charging Officer of the decision whether to convene a CPRB on the charged cadet.

5. Refer to the published CPRB Manual on cadets.tamu.edu for additional information.

CHAPTER 5: CORPS ACADEMICS

1. COMMANDANT'S INTENT

Academic success is the leading priority of the Corps of Cadets because, first and foremost, cadets attend Texas A&M University to attain a degree. The Corps promotes and enhances the scholastic performance of all Corps members by providing the most successful academic support program on campus. The Corps Academic program utilizes an intentional, standards-based approach to establish the environment, provide professional academic consulting and a mentorship support program, and recognize academic achievement. This policy also promotes an academic program to enable graduation in a timely manner.

2. KEYS TO ACADEMIC SUCCESS FOR CADETS

- A. Seek out tutoring, supplemental instruction, and departmental help when needed.
- B. Utilize Evening Study Time (EST) efficiently. Use your free time on the weekends (or if necessary, during the Academic Day) to conduct personal errands.

The Corps Commander, Deputy Corps Commander, Corps Chief of Staff, as well as all Commanders, Sergeants Major, and First Sergeants down to the Company/Squadron level are chosen through an interview and selection process. They serve at the pleasure of the President of the University and may be administratively replaced at the discretion of the Commandant. Command (along with staff officer) responsibilities begin after first pass of Final Review of the junior year and conclude with the first pass of Final Review of the senior year.
- B. Unit commanders will assign individuals to all positions in their command, e.g., Squad Leader, Platoon/Flight Sergeant, and Platoon/Flight Leader.
- C. Positions other than those listed in the CPG may be assigned as additional duties. Additional duties will not merit promotion to a higher rank. Personnel assigned to staffs will not appear in the outfit rosters nor will staff personnel be assigned duties in their home outfits.

CHAPTER 8: COMMAND AUTHORITY

1. CHAIN OF COMMAND

2. RESPONSIBILITIES

- A. Command authority refers to the authority a commander exercises over subordinates by virtue of rank and/or assignment. Command includes the authority and responsibility for effectively using resources for planning, organizing, directing, coordinating, and controlling an organization in the accomplishment of assigned missions.
- B. The cadet commander is responsible for all that his/her unit does or fails to do from the time he/she assumes command until relieved of that command. The commander cannot delegate command responsibilities. The cadet commander discharges his/her responsibilities through an established chain of command. Through this chain of command, the cadet commander holds each subordinate cadet commander responsible for what the subordinate unit does or fails to do.
- C. The Cadet Commander's staff prepares the details of the commander's plan, translates his/her decisions and guidance into orders, and causes such orders to be transmitted to each command element.

- D. Cadet Commanders have the ability to delegate authority to the next ranking cadet during their absence but are not relieved of their command responsibilities.

3. INCIDENT REPORTING

- A. Upon becoming aware of any incident listed in paragraph c. below, commanders will submit incident reports. Initial reports are verbal, followed by a detailed report via email to the Operations Advisor or CDO, depending on the time of the report. For non-sensitive reports, commanders may be directed to copy the cadet chain of command on email reports. Commanders will include all pertinent information when submitting the report:
 - 1. Who was involved?
 - 2. What was the nature of the incident?
 - 3. When did the incident occur?
 - 4. Where did the incident occur?
 - 5. Other details that explain the situation and ongoing actions.
- B. During normal working hours (0800-1700), commanders will notify their Operations Advisor. If the Operations Advisor is unavailable, commanders will notify the Operations Office in Ash II LLC (979-862- 4311). After working hours (1701-0759), commanders will notify the CDO (979-229-5826).
- C. After receiving the commander's report, the Ops Advisor/CDO will notify the Commandant as described below. Updates will be submitted via Teams:

Phone Call with positive confirmation (If there is no answer, leave a message and send a text.) Once confirmed and directed, generate Teams report	Teams Report

D. The above list may not cover all situations that warrant notification. When in doubt, notify the OA/CDO.

CHAPTER 9: CADET CLASS SYSTEM AND RESPONSIBILITIES

1. CLASS SYSTEM

- A. Seniors hold the rank of cadet officers. They are the executive leaders of the Corps and set the standard for behavior; establish, focus on, and communicate their organization's vision; establish and maintain a positive environment founded on dignity and respect; develop the lower three classes; enforce The Standard; hold all cadets accountable for their actions; and make the decisions that affect the operations of the Corps of Cadets as a whole. They seek to inspire and to develop the organization by first setting the example and then by planning, leading, and supervising the Corps of Cadets.
- B. Juniors hold the rank of cadet senior non-commissioned officers. They are the primary instructors for the freshman and sophomore classes. They set a positive example; communicate their organization's vision; maintain a positive environment based on dignity and respect; develop others into model cadets; enforce The Standard; hold their class and all brown belt classes accountable for their actions; and implement/execute the directions, orders, and guidance provided by the cadet chain of command. They serve as mentors leading the teams that carry out the vision and execute the plans for the Corps of Cadets.
- C. Sophomores hold the rank of Cadet Private First Class, Cadet Corporal, or Cadet Sergeant. They are the assistant instructors for the freshman class and execute the directions, orders, and policies of the cadet leadership chain in accordance with The Standard. Exemplifying dignity and respect, sophomores set the example and coach the freshmen to become model cadets while learning how to lead the Corps for the future.
- D. Freshmen are Cadet Privates and are referred to as "fish" throughout their freshman year. Freshmen can be promoted to Cadet PFC once they achieve the promotion criteria as outlined below. Freshmen are the lifeblood of the Corps. They are attentive and coachable as they learn from their sophomores and upperclassmen. Freshmen strive to develop self-discipline and good study habits as they lay the foundation for their future in the Corps.
- E. Promotion Criteria for Freshmen and Sophomore Cadets. The promotion of a freshman to Cadet Private First Class or a sophomore to Cadet Sergeant should positively contribute to the high standards of leadership and proficiency required for academic success. Promotion is as much a reward for past performance as it is an expectation of future potential. Commanders will be guided by the following criteria:
 - (1) Achieve a 3.5 cumulative GPA.
 - (2) Exemplify the Corps Values of Honor, Integrity, Discipline, Courage, Respect, and Selfless Service.
 - (3) Record an overall Corps PFT score of 265 or higher and meet weight/body fat standards.
 - (4) Be in good standing regarding University or Corp conduct, and not be under investigation for conduct that could result in discipline sanctions.
 - (5) Commanders shall reduce previously promoted cadets who fail to maintain the high standards required of the cadet rank. The Commandant may reduce cadets for incompetence or unacceptable performance of duty at any time.

2. CADET CONDUCT

By joining the Corps of Cadets, cadets agree to hold themselves to a higher standard than typical students. Listed below are cadet conduct standards.

A. In the Corps dorms and on the Quad

- (1) All cadets respect the right to privacy of their fellow cadets. Cadets will be respectful of others and respect the environment in the dorm to foster academic success and leadership development.
- (2) All cadets will whip out to cadets senior to them and meet cadets within their own class.
- (3) On campus. All cadets will conduct themselves in a manner that reflects favorably upon the Corps of Cadets. Although the Corps of Cadets recognizes distinctions between the Corps classes, cadets will interact with other cadets and fellow students in a professional and respectful manner regardless of class.

B. On Campus

As Keepers of the Spirit and Guardians of Tradition at Texas A&M University, cadets set the example for all students on campus. Cadets show pride in themselves, the Corps, and the University by their neat appearance, friendliness, helpfulness, and courtesy.

- (1) Seniors may walk on the grass on campus except for the grass around the MSC. All other cadets will not walk on the grass.
- (2) Cadets will not enter any fountains or natural or man-made water features on campus.

Cadets will greet cadets they know and will whip out to cadets they do not know. It is the junior cadet's responsibility to whip out to the more senior cadet. See paragraph 4.a.(3) of this chapter for whip out procedures for fish.

C. At Yell Practice

- (1) All cadets will attend yell practice and enthusiastically participate in all yells and songs.
- (2) When forming to move to Kyle Field for Midnight Yell Practice, junior cadets and their dates fall in around and at the rear of the band procession. All others move into the east side seating area of Kyle Field. Designated juniors and their dates will follow the

CHAPTER 11: MILITARY COURTESY

1. GREETING AND SALUTING

In keeping with the military traditions of Texas A&M, the following guidance is provided. The following guidance is practiced in the Corps of Cadets at Texas A&M University and may differ from the service branches.

A. The Hand Salute:

- (1) The salute is an official sign of recognition and greeting rendered between members of the military profession as a sign of mutual respect and as a sign of allegiance to the standard or anthem representing the United States of America.
 - (a) The proper hand salute is rendered from a position of attention or while walking by raising the right hand smartly until the tip of the forefinger touches the headdress just above and slightly to the right of the right eye. The right forearm shall be inclined at a 45-degree angle with the upper arm parallel to the ground and the elbow slightly forward. The fingers are lined tightly together, and the thumb lies snugly along the side of the hand. The hand and wrist are straight, so they form a line from the fingertip to the elbow with the palm slightly inward.
 - (b) When rendering the salute, always stand and turn the head and eyes toward the person or flag being saluted. Hold the salute until the person being saluted drops his/her hand, then bring the hand directly down to its natural position at the side. When walking, initiate the salute at a conversational distance (about six paces), hold the salute until it is returned, and drop the salute after the officer drops theirs. It is improper to salute with any object in the right hand or in the mouth.
- (2) Occasions when the Hand Salute is rendered.
 - (a) When a cadet in any cadet uniform approaches an officer or group of officers in uniform or civilian clothes outdoors, the cadet will salute and give the appropriate greeting.
 - (b) Cadets salute during Reveille and Retreat Ceremonies when a part of the ceremony or as individuals when within sight of the flag or the sound of the bugle call or ceremonial music.
 - (c) Cadets salute during the National Anthem and the rendering of honors ("Ruffles and Flourishes" and the General's/Admiral's March played to honor an officer of flag rank or musical honors played to honor a senior governmental official such as "Hail to the Chief" played to honor the President of the United States.)
 - (d) Cadets in uniform salute during the national anthem of countries friendly to the United States.
 - (e) Cadets not in formation individually salute when passing or are passed by the uncased National Colors outdoors. When the flag is passing, cadets in uniform come to attention and render the appropriate salute. Cadets in civilian attire stand at attention and place their right hand over their heart. The salute is rendered six steps before the flag reaches a position directly to the front. The salute is held until the flag has passed six steps beyond that point. When in formation, the cadet in charge of the formation calls the formation to attention and commands "Present, Arms" when the flag is approximately six steps from the formation. All cadets in the formation salute. The salute is held until the flag has passed six steps beyond the formation, at which time the person in charge of the formation commands "Order, Arms." All cadets drop their salute.

- (f) Cadets in formation salute when commanded to do so by the individual in charge of the formation. When commanded to "Present, Arms, or Hand Salute" all persons in the formation will execute a salute.
 - (g) Cadets will come to attention when the Colors are ascending / descending the flagpole. Cadets in uniform will render a salute.
 - (h) In any case not covered by specific instructions, or in the case where a cadet is unsure if they should salute, a salute is rendered.
- (3) Occasions when a salute is inappropriate.
- (a) Cadets should not salute when at work indoors or when both arms of a cadet are full, and a salute would require a cadet to drop some of the material in hand. The cadet should still offer the appropriate greeting of the day.
 - (b) Cadets do not salute colors displayed on fixed flagpoles or cased. A folded flag is "cased colors" and does not require cadets to render any honors when the person carrying the folded flag passes.
- B. Greeting. A proper military greeting will be rendered to all members of the Commandant's Staff. The greeting will be accompanied by a salute only when addressing a commissioned officer. Examples are:
- (1) When in contact with a commissioned officer: "Good morning, Colonel Jones" or (if name is not known) "Good morning, sir/ma'am".
 - (2) When in contact with a noncommissioned officer: "Good morning, Sergeant Major Smith" or (if name is not known) "Good morning, Sergeant Major". If the name and rank are not known, "Good morning".
 - (3) When in contact with a non-military member of the Commandant's staff: "Good morning, Mr. Smith" or "Good morning, Dr. Jones." If the name is not known, "Good morning, sir/ma'am".
 - (4) When greeting a group of commissioned officers, "Good morning gentlemen" (all male), "Good morning, ladies" (all female), "Good morning, ma'am, good morning gentlemen" (female officer and male officers), "Good morning, ladies and gentlemen" (female and male officers), or "Good morning, ladies, good morning, sir" (female officers and male officer).
 - (5) When overtaking a commissioned officer from behind, the proper greeting is to pass along the officer's left side, render a salute and say, "By your leave sir/ma'am."
 - (6) "Howdy sir/ma'am" is not a proper military greeting.
 - (7) Time of Day:
 - (a) "Good morning" is used before lunch.

(b) "Good afternoon" is used after lunch.

(c) "Good evening" is used after dinner and until the next morning.

2. REPORTING TO AN OFFICER

- A. Indoors: The cadet first removes his/her cover, knocks on the officer's office door, and enters when told to do so. The cadet approaches within two steps of the officer's desk, halts, and salutes (Army/Air Force only). The cadet shall hold the salute until the reporting phrase is completed and the officer has returned/acknowledged the salute. The reporting phrase may consist of: "Sir/Ma'am, Cadet (Name) reports as ordered." or "Sir/Ma'am, Cadet (Name) requests permission to speak." or "Sir/Ma'am, Cadet (Name) reports as requested." If the officer gives "at ease" then stand at parade rest. Once the conversation has ended and officer is done, the cadet will snap to attention, render a salute (Army/Air Force only), and report out as follows: "Good morning, sir/ma'am." Or "By your leave sir/ma'am."
- B. Outdoors: When reporting outdoors, the cadet will rapidly move to the vicinity of the officer, halt at approximately two steps from the officer, salute and report as outlined above.
- C. If an officer approaches a cadet while the cadet is seated, the cadet should rise until told to be seated by the officer.

3. OTHER COURTESIES ACCORDED BY CADETS

- A. When the National Anthem or honors is played indoors, cadets stand at attention and face the music or the National Flag if one is present. Cadets do not salute unless they are under arms.
- B. A cadet in formation, who is standing at ease or at rest, comes to attention when addressed by an officer.
- C. When accompanying an officer, the cadet walks or rides on the left, except during an inspection of troops in formation. In entering a vehicle, the cadet enters first, and the officer follows. In leaving a vehicle, the officer leaves first, the cadet follows.
- D. When walking with an officer and they come to a door, the cadet should hold the door open for the officer. An example of when this would not be possible would be if the door needed to be pushed open and the cadet would not be able to easily open and hold the door for the officer. In such a situation, the cadet should allow the officer to push the door open and pass through first.
- E. When an officer enters a room used as an office, workshop or is being used at the time as a place of study, cadets engaged in the activity do not come to attention unless the officer speaks to them. Habitually, a cadet comes to attention when addressed by an officer except in the transaction of routine business between individuals engaged in activities described in this paragraph.
- F. While inside the Military Science (Trigon) Building or a Dormitory:
 - (1) If a cadet is in the hallway and meets an officer with whom he/she wishes to speak, the cadet should approach the officer and speak without saluting. After having given the appropriate greeting for the time of the day, the cadet should ask the officer if he/she has time to speak with the cadet, or if he/she can make an appointment to speak with the officer later.

- (2) When a cadet is seated in a hallway and an officer passes by, the cadet should stand, and clearly and distinctly give the appropriate greeting for the time of the day in a conversational voice.
- (3) When a cadet meets an officer in the hallway and begins speaking to the officer and the officer enters an office, the cadet should pause at the door until told by the officer to enter. A report is not necessary in this case.
- (4) When an officer enters a dorm or room, the first cadet who sees the officer will command, "Attention". All those present will come to attention until the officer departs, directs them to "Carry On," or directs them to some activity.
- (5) Cadets will be in the uniform of the day during duty hours in the Trigon (includes classrooms).

CHAPTER 12: INTRODUCTION TO DRILL AND CEREMONIES

1. PURPOSE OF DRILL

Commanders use close order drill to instill habits of discipline that ultimately translate into the leadership development of each cadet as they pursue their personal and professional endeavors. The purposes of conducting close drill include:

- A. Moving units from one place to another in a consistent and orderly manner.
- B. Teaching discipline by instilling habits of precision and automatic response to orders.
- C. Increasing confidence of cadet officers and noncommissioned officers (NCO) through the exercise of command, by giving proper commands and directing cadets.

2. PURPOSE OF FORMATIONS

Ultimately, the importance of formation is two-fold: to acquire personnel accountability across the Quad and to pay respect to the colors. Formations may also be used for the following:

- A. Maintain control and accountability of personnel.
- B. Pass information.
- C. Develop command presence in unit leaders.
- D. Provide opportunities to inspect the appearance and readiness of personnel.
- E. Instill and maintain high standards of military bearing and appearance.
- F. Build cohesion and esprit de corps.

3. DRILL INSTRUCTION

Every cadet (regardless of class) must be proficient in drill and able to execute all drill movements with precision upon command.

- A. Upperclassmen must be able to teach drill in a proficient and understandable manner.
- B. Having a thorough knowledge of each drill movement and the associated commands along with developing the proper command voice is key to effective drill instruction. Each respective service drill manual specifically addresses commands, command voice and individual drill instruction.
- C. A common technique for instruction is to use the “By the numbers” approach. This technique is addressed in all drill manuals.

4. RESPONSIBILITY

- A. Commanders are responsible for implementing the associated service drill manual within their unit for daily formations, outfit activities, and unit runs. Unit commanders will seek drill expertise from their respective ROTC cadre and identify subject matter experts at the cadet officer and NCO level to ensure each unit is properly trained in drill.
- B. For March-ins, parades, and reviews certain drill movements will differ from the military service drill manuals. See MARCHING GRADE/INSPECTION CRITERIA to ensure standardization when the Corps is on parade.

5. SOURCE REFERENCES

All units will reference their associated military service drill and ceremonies manuals.

- A. Brigade: TC 3-21.5 Drill and Ceremonies (3 May 2021)
- B. Regiment: MCO 5060.20 Marine Corps Drill and Ceremonies Manual (15 May 2019)
- C. Wing: DAFPAM 34-1203 Drill and Ceremonies (13 September 2022)

CHAPTER 13: COLORS

1. RENDERING HONORS OUTDOORS

- A. Whenever the National Anthem, "To the Colors," "Hail to the Chief," or "Ruffles and Flourishes" is played, at the first note of music, all dismounted personnel in uniform, who are not in formation, who are within saluting distance of the National Flag, will face in the direction of the flag, or music if the flag is not in view, and salute, maintaining the salute until the last note of the music is sounded. Cadets who are not in uniform will face the direction of the music or the National Colors, come to attention, and place their right hand over their heart. Cadets will follow these procedures to render honors when attending an event in Kyle Field (Aggie Football Game).
- B. Rendering Honors Indoors: When the National Anthem or other music identified above is played indoors, cadets stand at attention and face the music or the National Flag if one is present. Cadets do not salute unless they are under arms.
- C. National Anthems of countries friendly to the United States of America. The honors described above are rendered when the National Anthem of countries friendly to the United States is played at official functions (Including Kyle Field). Cadets not in uniform assume the position of attention.
- D. Honors to the Texas Flag. When the Texas state song (Texas Our Texas) is played, cadets will stand, face the flag (or the music if no flag is present), and assume the position of Attention for the duration of the song.

2. FLAG DETAIL

- A. The Flag of the United States of America is displayed at full mast on the Quad between Reveille and Retreat each day of the school year when Corps of Cadets is present, unless otherwise directed by the Commandant. This includes Fridays, Saturdays, and Sundays even if Reveille and Retreat Formations are not conducted. Responsibility for this daily display of the flag of the United States of America is assigned to the Company B-2.
- B. The Duty Company raises and lowers the National Colors each day on campus on the Academic Plaza and at the Williams Administration Building. The Texas Flag is also raised and lowered at the Administration Building.
- C. When the FOLDED flag passes by during Flag Detail, it is treated as a cased Color and is not to be saluted by persons meeting the detail.
- D. Frayed, torn, or otherwise damaged flags will be promptly reported to the Corps Operations Officer for replacement.
- E. On the occasion of Silver Taps, Aggie Muster, and when specified by the Office of the Commandant, the National Flag (and Texas Flag), having been rapidly raised to full staff, will be lowered slowly to half-staff. To retrieve the colors at the end of the day, the Duty Company raises the flag to full staff before lowering and recovery the flags.

CHAPTER 14: GENERAL UNIFORM POLICY

1. GENERAL

- A. The Texas A&M Corps of Cadets Uniform Policy provides guidance for the proper wear of the cadet uniform. The wearing of the uniform by the members of the Corps of Cadets is a vital part of our proud history and tradition, as well as a visual reminder of who we are and what we represent on this campus.
- B. Wearing the uniform is a matter of personal pride. Cadets must maintain their uniforms in a neat and serviceable condition. By their appearance, cadets set an example of pride through strict conformity with this regulation. It is incumbent upon all cadets to wear the uniform correctly, and ensure peers and subordinates alike do the same.

2. GUIDELINES

- A. These guidelines are not all encompassing. Cadets must familiarize themselves with all uniform regulations, abide by them, and seek guidance or clarification from appropriate authority when necessary.
- B. Uniforms must be properly fitted, clean, and pressed. Uniform shoes and Senior Boots must be highly shined. The term “properly fitted” indicates a sharp military appearance with a smartly tucked shirt or blouse and trousers properly fitted to the body size and shape (missing buttons, too small shirt, and incorrect trouser length and/or a waist band are common problems).
 - (1) The Corps Commander prescribes the Uniform of the Day (UOD). The Class B Uniform is the default UOD. Cadets may wear a higher class of uniform than the UOD without requesting approval, except when directed for Corps uniformity (e.g., formations, reviews, or special events).
 - (2) Members of the Corps of Cadets are authorized to wear only uniforms, insignia, and awards and decorations outlined herein. Unit symbols/shirts of non-active units will not be worn at University/Corps activities (e.g., deactivated outfit T-shirts will not be worn at March to The Brazos, Yell Practice, etc.).
 - (3) Cadets are required to wear all ribbons/medals they earn as a cadet. Cadets are not allowed to decide which ribbon(s) are worn. Ribbons will be worn with the Class B uniform and the Midnight uniform. Medals are worn when wearing the Class A uniform. The Corps Commander may authorize medals be worn on Midnight uniform for a special event. All cadets at the event wearing the Midnight uniform must be the same (all medals or all ribbons).
 - (4) All cadets will wear a TAMU patch in lieu of the ROTC patch upon joining the Corps. When a cadet receives an ROTC scholarship or contracts for a commission with an ROTC branch (Military Science, Naval Science, or Aerospace Studies), the Uniform Distribution Center will exchange/issue a uniform shirt with a patch that identifies their ROTC program.
 - (a) Cadets authorized to wear non-ROTC (e.g., Platoon Leader Course, Naval Nuclear Propulsion Officer Candidate Program, Naval Civil Engineering Corps Collegiate Program, etc) contract patches on their uniform during the Spring 2025 semester may wear those patches until they march their Final Review.

- (b) Members of Delta Company are authorized to wear their prior service unit patches on their cadet uniforms.
 - (c) No other patches will be worn on the uniform sleeves.
- (5) Mixing the uniform with civilian clothing is not authorized, except for low quarter shoes, combat boots, and the raincoat because they are generic clothing items. Senior boots will not be worn with civilian clothing as they are a distinct cadet uniform item. See the guidance regarding "class pull out pictures" in the Corps Policy Guidance.
 - (6) Cadets will use common sense regarding the wear of the uniform when outside their rooms in the dorm. Cadets will not loiter in the hallway in partial uniform.
 - (7) All cadets are authorized to maintain their uniform with brass and other accessories 'wired' for wear.
 - (8) Females are required to wear trousers at football March-Ins, Corps Reviews, and Military Proficiency Inspections. In all other cases, all females, regardless of class, may wear trousers or skirts.
 - (9) Cadets will adhere by the hair and grooming standards outlined in the Corps Policy Guidance. Shorter or more restrictive requirements are prohibited.
 - (10) Cadets in uniform are authorized to carry black backpacks or book/shoulder bags in their left hand, on their left or right shoulder, or on both shoulders. Bags and briefcases must not interfere with rendering a salute or whipping out.
 - (11) All cadets are authorized to wear conservative sunglasses in uniform when outside. Lenses or frames with conspicuous initials, designs, or colors, as well as reflective lenses, are prohibited. Metallic, black, and brown frames are authorized. Sunglasses will not be worn inside or in formation. Cadets will not hang glasses or glass cases on their uniform, let the glasses hang on a restraint around the neck, or wear the glasses on the top of the head when in uniform. As a courtesy, cadets will remove their sunglasses when meeting or talking with someone.
 - (12) All headgear should fit naturally on the head and remain in place during normal activities. The leather visor of the Service Cap will be highly polished to take on a marbled appearance but not to the degree that the brim is no longer brown in color. The edges of the Service Cap will not be bent over/crushed to take on an 'Old Army' appearance. Campaign hats, other than those worn by PMC cadets, must have a crisp flat brim, and the crown will not be deformed.
 - (13) Cadets will not place their hands in their pockets for an extended period. Pocket fasteners (buttons) must be always fastened. Seniors need to pay close attention to the pockets of their boot pants. Wallets and other items may be carried in uniform pockets but nothing is allowed to stick out of the pocket. Large rectangular leather wallets that protrude from pockets are not authorized for uniform wear.
 - (14) Cold Weather. Cold weather uniform items include a black jacket with cadet rank insignia on the shoulder epaulette and gloves for the class B uniform and combinations of sweatshirt, sweatpants, black watch cap, and black gloves for physical training. As the temperature approaches 55 degrees Fahrenheit or colder, the Corps Commander, in consultation with Operations will determine the appropriate cold weather uniform items for various formations and activities. Cadets must check cadets.tamu.edu to ensure they wear the correct uniform.

- (15) Raingear. The raincoat may be worn with any uniform. The campaign hat or garrison cap will be worn with the raincoat. The OCP cap will be worn when wearing raingear with the Class C uniform. Cadets may carry / use an umbrella during inclement weather when wearing any variant of the class A or B uniform. Cadets may carry/use an umbrella during inclement weather when wearing any uniform. The umbrella must be black, plain, and absent of logos or designs. Umbrellas are not authorized for formation.
- (16) Bathrobes. All cadets will wear a bathrobe when going to/from the shower/restroom. As a minimum, PT shorts (and bra for females) and shower shoes will be worn. No additional items will be required to be worn when going to/from the shower or restroom. Robes must be kept closed with the sash secured around the waist when in the hallway. Robes must extend at least past the mid-thigh. Robes may be any color other than burnt orange.
- (17) When in uniform, Cadets shall not operate bicycles, scooters, skates, skateboards, or other personal mobility devices other than wheelchairs.
- (18) Cadets are responsible for maintenance and dry cleaning of their assigned uniforms.
- (19) No article of the Texas A&M cadet uniform will be worn by anyone other than a current cadet in the Corps. This includes dates and former cadets.
- (20) The use of chewing gum, any tobacco product or tobacco substitute while in uniform, or the consumption of food or beverage while walking in uniform or standing in formation are prohibited. These activities detract from an appropriate military presence.
- (21) Cadets will not use a cell phone or other electronic device when walking in uniform (includes texting, talking, or surfing the net). The use of earbuds or headphones to listen to an electronic device are not authorized when wearing any cadet uniform, to include PT gear, except when seated and studying. Cell phones and electronic devices will not hang on the uniform or belt.
- (22) Alcohol may not be consumed while in uniform without prior approval of the Commandant.
- (23) Cadets with medical conditions which prevent the wear of the uniform may wear the Corps athletic uniform.

C. On-Campus Wear

- (1) All members of the Corps of Cadets will wear the cadet uniform on campus as indicated below. Cadets will wear the uniform they are authorized based on their cadet status. (For example, fish will not wear an upperclass uniform as a means of reward or privileges).

- (b) The following guidance is provided regarding the wear of the cadet uniform at student organization meetings and functions.
 - 1. Cadets may join any student organization. If the organization conducts their meetings in a building on campus requiring the wear of the cadet uniform, the cadet must wear the uniform of the day.
 - 2. If the organization is controversial or political in nature, cadets will neither appear in uniform at a public function for the organization nor appear in uniform in organizational pictures/social media nor be identified as a member of the Corps of Cadets. Attending functions conducted outside of campus buildings in civilian clothing where the cadet is acting as a student at Texas A&M is authorized.
 - 3. In general, the cadet is prohibited from doing anything which might give the appearance of the Corps of Cadets supporting or promoting the political/controversial organization. This guidance is similar to what the military services follow for service members.

- A. The awards below are the only Corps awards authorized for wear on the cadet uniform. Military service awards may be worn on the cadet uniform by eligible cadets. These awards must be worn according to armed forces' regulations. The wearing of an award not authorized by the issuing authority is considered an honor violation. Combat patches are authorized.
- B. Levels of Accolades. Currently, cadets wear four different types of accolades (cords, medals, ribbons and pins/badges) on their uniform to symbolize involvement in a corps organization, involvement in a Corps special unit, or an individual award based upon merit. These accolades are differentiated based upon the following criteria (in descending level):
 - (1) Award Citation Cords. Wearing a cord is the most visible way a cadet or unit has to demonstrate proven excellence in the Corps of Cadets. Cords are authorized for Unit Awards and for cadets involved in specific Corps Special Units. Military service cords, when awarded, are authorized for wear. The following Unit Awards are awarded a citation cord and may be worn by all members of that unit during the academic year after the Unit Award. For units that earned more than one cord for an academic year, it is the Commander's responsibility to standardize the cord worn by the outfit members for Corps events (i.e., March-Ins and Reviews).
 - (a) The General George F. Moore Award for the Outstanding Unit
 - (b) The Taylor Gillespie Award for the Most Improved Unit
 - (c) The George P. F. Jouine Award for Scholastic Achievement
 - (d) The Major General Bruno A. Hochmuth Award for Military Achievement.

- (e) The J.J. Sanchez Award for Recruiting and Retention
 - (f) The Commandant's Award for University Activity
 - (g) The Robert M. Gates Public Service Award
- (2) Organizational Cords. In the same manner, a citation cord may be worn to designate membership or participation in one of the following activities:
- (a) A senior commander (Corps Commander, Deputy Corps Commander, Corps Chief of Staff, and Major Unit Commander, and Minor Unit Commander.)
 - (b) A cadet's participation in the Ross Volunteer Company, Fish Drill Team, Parsons Mounted Cavalry, and the O. R. Simpson Honor Society. Once earned, the RV and FDT cords are worn for a cadet's time in the Corps, unless a cadet is suspended from participation. Only current and active members of Parsons Mounted Cavalry and O. R. Simpson Honor Society are authorized to wear their cord.
 - (c) These units are distinguishable from other Corps and ROTC organizations and from various off-the-quad organizations based on the unit's commitment to demonstrating the best aspects of the Corps of Cadets while also upholding our values. Cadets who are dismissed from an organization (whether for grades or disciplinary reasons) will turn in their cord, medal, and ribbon.
- (3) Outstanding Achievement Medals. Military medals are symbols of an individual's own personal achievements. Within the Corps of Cadets, medals are authorized for past and present participation in the Ross Volunteer Company, Parsons Mounted Cavalry, the Fish Drill Team and the O. R. Simpson Honor Society. Medals are also awarded and authorized for wear by cadets for individual awards.
- (4) Ribbons and Pins. Ribbons and pins may be used to demonstrate a cadet's specific involvement in an on or off-the-Quad organization. The Unit and Individual Award cords and medals can also have an accompanying ribbon.

8. MEDALS AND RIBBONS

- A. Medals or ribbons (not both at the same time) will be worn using an order of precedence. Ribbons are normally worn for all occasions. Medals are only worn on the Class A uniform for formal occasions. Ribbons are worn above the left pocket and medals are worn over the left pocket. For all decorations and awards, the place of honor is on the wearer's right and at the top. The order of precedence then is from the wearer's right to left and from top to bottom.
- B. The top row of awards will be the only row that may have less than three awards. Only three rows of ribbons and two rows of medals may be worn. The top of the second row of medals will be placed at the bottom of the drapes of the first (top) row.
- C. Stars will be placed on the award to designate the cadet has earned the award more than once (e.g.; one star for 2nd award, two stars 3rd award, etc.). No more than four stars will be placed on any single award. The star placed on the ribbon will be gold in color, unless specifically approved /authorized to wear a different color star. An additional ribbon with stars to indicate a 6th or 7th award is not authorized.

- D. Some awards have ribbons and medals, others have only ribbons. Military awards (ribbons and/or medals) will not be worn at the same time as a cadet award is worn. ROTC awards are authorized to be worn with other cadet awards. Ribbons that have accompanying medals are denoted below. No other medals are authorized, even if drapes are available for purchase.

 - (3) The pillow will be centered and grounded to the fold in the bedspread. The opening of the pillowcase will face the wall. The end of the bed with the pillow will be closest to the window wall.
 - (4) Hospital corners will be used for all exposed corners.
 - (5) Safety pins will not be used to secure the sheets to the mattress. Even the smallest holes in the mattress reduce the fire-retardant properties of the mattress and make the mattress unserviceable. Cadets will have to pay the replacement cost for a new mattress.
 - (6) Shelves above the rack will not be used by freshmen. The area above shelves may be used for storage such as suitcases and luggage (must be neat).
 - (7) Dressers below the rack will be aligned with front edge of the rack and closed (if open, they are subject to inspection).
 - (8) The empty space below the rack will be between the two dressers and behind them. Footlockers may be stored in these areas.
- H. Floors. Floors will remain clean, neat, and orderly (see Privileges for information regarding authorized floor coverings).
- I. Moving Furniture. The movement or removal of furniture from the dorms room is not authorized. Dorm room furniture will remain in place no matter the Corps classification of the occupants.

2. UNAUTHORIZED ITEMS

Upon entering the Corps, cadets voluntarily agree to a more regimented lifestyle than other University students. Part of this lifestyle involves conducting official Corps of Cadets business throughout the day. It also involves inspections of cadet rooms and the cadet environment to ensure the maintenance of good order and discipline. To promote this environment in the dormitory, cadets will not possess any of the items listed below. Joining the Corps of Cadets and affirming the Cadet Oath authorizes inspection of cadet rooms to ensure compliance.

- A. Street signs and construction equipment. Unless a legal receipt of purchase is attached to the back/inside of the item, street signs and construction signs/equipment are prohibited.
- B. Offensive signs / logos / symbols / items. Racially offensive, hate group, and gang-related symbols, illegal drugs, and drug paraphernalia, along with any form of pornography or sexually related material (including pictures, books, magazines, collections, files, and material stored / accessed through electronic media) that would interfere with Corps business and maintenance of good order and discipline are prohibited.
- C. Flags and Posters. The display of any unauthorized / offensive flag (including posters and/or pictures of flags) is prohibited. Authorized flags include the national, state, and/or US military service flags, a sovereign country flag, or any college, athletic, or POW/MIA flag. Specifically, the display of the Confederate Battle Flag is prohibited.

- D. No items are allowed in the windows that can be seen from the outside. This includes flags, signs, political items, and class year items.
- E. Cadets will refer the “Appliances” section of the Residents Life Handbook for specific information on approved and restricted items. Additional or extra furniture is no longer authorized in the Corps dorm rooms.

3. VISITATION POLICY

A. Intent

This policy is in effect from the first day of onboarding Cadre Training to the last day of final exams for Spring Semester. All cadets residing in or visiting a cadet dormitory are responsible for knowing the visitation rules and regulations and hours of visitation. A guest is a visitor of either gender. The cadet is responsible for the guest’s conduct. Current students and cadets not normally granted access to a specific dorm may enter a Corps dorm during the Academic Day if they are escorted the entire time and the purpose of their visit is of short duration and for academic reasons. Parents, family members and friends must comply with the visitation hours.

B. Policy

- (1) Definition of a Guest in Corps Dorm. Any individual (cadet, non-reg student or family/friend) not actually assigned to the specific Corps dorm and room by ResLife is considered a guest. Cadets housed in other corps dorms or even on other floors/rooms of the same dorm are guests in any room to which they are not assigned.
- (2) Guests of cadets are not permitted in the Corps dorms, including doorways and hallways, other than during visitation hours. Female cadets are authorized to traverse a different dorm hallway than what they live on to utilize the female restroom.
- (3) During visitation hours, all cadets and their guests must be dressed as if they are in public areas. Guests and their actions are the responsibility of the sponsoring cadet.
- (4) Corps dorm visitation hours are below. Visitation hours on football game days and other Corps special events are suspended from one hour prior to Quad step off until 30 minutes after the end of the game/event.

DAY	VISITING HOURS
Weekdays (Monday – Thursday)	None
Fridays	1700 – 0200 (Saturday)
Saturdays	1000 – 0200 (Sunday)
Sundays	1200 – 1800
Reading Days / Final Exam Days	1000 – 0200 (Following Day)

- (5) The civilian co-ed residence halls have visitation hours determined by the vote of the residents. The single sex halls are only open for visitors from 0900 – 0200. Cadets will not violate the visitation hours of any residence hall.
- (6) Commanders will enforce the visitation regulations and report any violations to the CDO through the Guard Room (845-6789) or the appropriate Operations Advisor.
- (7) The Corps Leadership Learning Centers (LLCs) maintain different hours depending on the time of year (Finals, Summer, normal school days). Standard operations hours are below. The LLCs are closed on GameDays and for other special corps events.

DAY	LLC OPERATING HOURS
Weekdays (Monday – Thursday)	0530 – 0100
Fridays	0530 – 2200
Saturdays	1000 – 1700
Sundays	1000 – 0100 (Monday)

CHAPTER 24: DUNCAN DINING HALL

1. DUNCAN DINING HALL OPERATIONS

- A. The purpose in going to the Duncan Dining Center at mealtime is to eat. The environment must be such that all cadets, regardless of class, may consume the type and quantity of food desired. Training activities in Duncan will focus on dining procedures. Arbitrary rules and procedures are prohibited.
- B. All cadets, except "Day Students" must be on an approved meal plan. Periodic ID card checks may be done to ensure all cadets dining have an appropriate meal plan.

C. Duncan Dining Hall normal operating hours:

Corps Early Morning / Regular Chow	0600 / 0700 to 0730 (M – F)
Breakfast / Lunch (Meal Swipe required)	0730 to 0800 / 1100 to 1300 (M – F)
Dinner (Meal Swipe required)	1700 to 2000 (Mon – Thu)
Corps Evening Chow	1830 to 1915 (Mon, Tue & Thu)

- (1) Duncan Dining Center is closed for Dinner on Friday evening and all day on Saturday and Sunday.
 - (2) Cadets wanting to eat early chow in the evening on Mon, Tue or Thu will need to be in uniform of the day to avoid having to swipe (thus paying for the meal a second time)
 - (3) If formation times change, the above schedule will be changed accordingly. Amendments to the above schedule may be made for special events.
- D. Early Chow
- (1) Cadets who have an early class (prior to 0800) and those Blinn TEAM/TEAB cadets who must depart early are authorized to partake of early chow. All other cadets will eat chow with their unit immediately following morning activities. Cadets who exercise at morning activity and have a 0800 class should be released early from unit activity to clean up and get into uniform and join their unit at chow.
 - (2) Early chow in the evening runs from 1700 to 1820 and is for those cadets who have class, lab, or other valid appointment/meeting preventing them from eating with their outfit at 1830. Cadets who have class until just before formation at 1830 can still eat with their unit when they get out of class. Early evening chow is not authorized for those who want to beat the rush or are just hungry and do not want to wait. Corps/Unit PT uniform is not authorized for early chow.
 - (3) BRC/SRC and eating chow with your outfit after formation in both the morning and evening is an outfit function/activity in which every cadet should strive to participate. Finding an excuse to eat early or to skip out on eating with your unit is skipping out on an outfit activity and could incur disciplinary actions.
- E. Deviation from Normal Serving Routine
- (1) Silver Taps – Complete silence (Silent Chow) will be observed in Duncan. No upperclassmen details of any kind will be allowed.

- (2) Corps Bag-Ins – On mornings when there is a Corps bag-in, Duncan Dining Hall will serve free flow chow until 0830. Cadets will wear a clean Corps/Unit athletic uniform or the uniform of the day.
- F. Any deviation from this schedule must be submitted in writing to the Corps Logistics Officer at least 24 hours before the meal. Corps Logistics must coordinate the deviation with Dining Services at least 12 hours (24 hours desired) before the event. Include information as to date, meal in question, unit's estimated time of arrival, and number of cadets involved. Without an approved written request, Dining Services' employees may turn away anyone attempting to eat outside normal hours of operation.
 - G. Corps bag-ins must be coordinated with the Corps Operations Director, appear on the Corps Training Schedule, and a Duncan Dining Services Supervisor should be advised seven days in advance, if possible. No cadet, other than the Corps Commander, has the authority to approve deviations from this policy. When the Aggie Band has a bag-in, the Commander of the Combined Band is responsible for notifying the Corps Logistics Officer and a Duncan Dining Services supervisor promptly. Note: Bag-ins excuse cadets from morning formation and breakfast only. Bag-ins do not relieve cadets, including commanders, from responsibilities of the day, such as classes, reports, meetings, room inspections, etc.
 - H. Cadets will enter Duncan as part of formation. Late entry is only authorized for cadets with special circumstances which cause them to miss formation.
 - I. Cadets have eight meals committed to Duncan Dining Hall each week. Morning meals (Monday through Friday) and evening meals (Monday, Tuesday, and Thursday). These eight meals will automatically be deducted from each cadet's meal plan. Should a cadet not be able to eat any of the meals listed above in Duncan due to academic conflicts, they may seek meal reimbursement from the Corps Operations Director during the first three weeks of classes for each semester.
 - J. Cadets are encouraged to eat at Duncan Dining Hall for all midday meals. Since Duncan is "just another" Dining Services facility during the midday meal, cadets may sit where and with whom they choose. Cadets may bring guests according to Dining Services rules.
 - K. The uniform for chow corresponds to the uniform of the day and can be modified by the Corps Commander.
 - (1) Corps and ROTC special unit uniforms will be established by the respective unit commander as authorized by the Corps Deputy Commander. Leaders of these special groups are responsible for allowing time for uniform change prior to chow.
 - (2) The Corps/Unit athletic uniform is acceptable for lunch and will consist of sweats (as required, if sweatpants are worn so must a sweatshirt be worn), the issued Corps/Unit PT uniform (shirt tucked in), along with athletic shoes and socks.
 - (3) Cadets will attend breakfast on Monday morning in the UOD. Uniform for breakfast on Tuesday-Friday mornings can be UOD or Corps/unit athletic uniform depending on the morning activity conducted. Cadets in extremely soiled/muddy gear must change clothes prior to coming to breakfast.
 - (4) Cadets engaged in a scheduled intramural or outfit activity immediately before or after evening chow may wear the Corps or Unit athletic uniform.

- (5) Cadets in wet or soiled uniforms will not enter Duncan and will be directed to leave if their uniform is not appropriate for Duncan Dining Hall. Dining Services employees will normally coordinate this direction through the appropriate cadet commander.
- (6) Cadets who are out of uniform will not be allowed in Duncan Dining Hall without military letter authorization.
- (7) Appropriate civilian clothing is authorized for evening meal on Friday and all weekend meals at Sbis Dining Hall and Commons Dining Center.

2. DINING SERVICES AUTHORITY

Dining services employees (cadets or civilians) have authority over dining services operations. Cadet leadership will be responsible for coordinating cadet conduct in the dining halls so the cadet procedures do not violate Dining Services procedures. All cadets will cooperate with Dining Service employees in the execution of their duties. Problems involving Dining Services employees should be immediately referred to the Corps Logistics Officer, Corps Logistics Sergeant, or member of the Commandant's Staff.

3. DUNCAN DINING HALL PROCEDURES

- A. Table Arrangement. All tables will be separated so cadets eat at a nine-person table (four cadets on each side and a junior or senior on the end). Any table re-arrangement will be done by Duncan staff.
- B. Table Assignment. Each semester, tables will be assigned to units and each unit will designate assigned seating for all morning and evening meals. Unit commanders may allow temporary seating to replace a missing white belt at a table or make permanent changes to adjust for cadets who have left the unit. A white belt cadet will be assigned to each table responsible for supervising the cadets at that table. The remaining seven/eight cadets will be a mix of cadets from all classes.
- C. Timing. A moment of reflection or prayer is conducted after all units enter Duncan but will not wait for everyone to be seated. Announcements may be made immediately following. Completion of announcements will not mark the beginning of consolidation or required departure time for any cadets (e.g., sophomores will not perform a mass exodus). When "ATTENTION" is called for the announcements, cadets not seated will quietly listen to the announcements and may continue their actions if it does not interfere with listening to the announcements. Seated cadets will not slam down their elbows on the tables when "ATTENTION" is called.
- D. Consolidation. Consolidation of trays and dinnerware will be accomplished at each table after all cadets have finished their meal. Fish will consolidate trays at their tables and other unit tables as appropriate. Fish will complete consolidation in a timely manner and will not delay their departure from Duncan to consolidate upper class cadets' trays. If no fish are present, upperclassmen will consolidate their own trays. Consolidation will be a clean and orderly process, no more than four trays at a time, accomplished at a pace consistent with good order and discipline to minimize the possibility of spilling food or damaging dishes.
 - (1) Food from plates and trash will be consolidated onto one tray.
 - (2) Plates, glasses, and silverware will be consolidated on separate trays.

- (3) Do not over-stack items on trays to the extent they may fall off on the way to or inside the accumulator.

E. Conduct

(1) Responsibilities

- (a) The environment in Duncan Dining Hall must be one in which cadets are proud to bring a distinguished guest at any time and know that the guest will receive dignified hospitality. This type of hospitality is not obtained except by the sincere cooperation of all cadets.
- (b) Outfit commanders are responsible for ensuring all cadets in their charge are well-nourished and the procedures outlined in this document are enforced. Commanders must not hesitate to step in and exert positive and direct control if the situation dictates.
- (c) The senior cadet present at a table will serve as the table leader. The table leader presides over and maintains order during meals. The table leader sets the pace for cadets and will look after the welfare of the cadets dining with him/her.

(2) Customs and Etiquette

- (a) Duncan Dining Hall is a cadet's dining room away from home. It is a place where cadets may gather with their fellow cadets for moments of relaxation, discussion of the day's challenges, and a meal. Whatever the event, it is a place where cadets must conduct themselves within the ordinary rules of propriety, common sense, and good manners, in addition to observing established rules of etiquette.

(b) Duncan Dining Hall Etiquette

1. Entry. All cadets will walk in Duncan Dining Hall. Cadets will take no more than one tray (if available), one set of silverware, and two glasses upon entering Duncan Dining Hall. Cadets will not be required to set the table for other cadets.
2. Serving. All cadets will select the food they wish to eat for their meal and promptly report to their assigned table.
3. Seating. The table leader sits at the head of the table. Cadets are seated at the leader's right and left in seniority order.
4. Common Courtesies
 - a. The table leader should be punctual for commencement of meals. In the event the table leader is delayed he/she should inform the next senior cadet to proceed with the meal.
 - b. Cadets should arrive at the table in time to be seated when the table leader sits down. Cadets will not sit down to meals before the table leader takes his/her seat. If cadets are late for the meal, they should request permission to join the meal from the senior cadet at the table.
 - c. The table leader should make announcements and lead the discussion at the table. Cadets will ask permission from the table leader to speak to other cadets at the table.

- d. Table leaders will promote conviviality and a cheerful atmosphere at the table. This does not mean boisterous conduct, but rather contributing to the conversation. A cheerful atmosphere cultivates goodwill among cadets and guests.
- e. It is not polite to rapidly eat and leave the table precipitately. If a cadet must leave the table before the meal is over, the cadet will request to be excused by the table leader.
- f. Cadets will observe good table manners. There is nothing that will compensate for bad table manners. The table leader will privately counsel those whose deportment brings down the tone of the meal.
- g. Cadets will request permission to be excused from the table leader.
- h. Cadets may excuse themselves to use the restroom, as necessary.

5. Thoughtful Habits

- a. Cadets will always remove their covers upon entering Duncan Dining Hall.
- b. Cadets will not appear in the Duncan Dining Hall out of uniform without permission from a proper authority.
- c. Cadets will pick up any dropped items and will notify Duncan employees of the need to clean up any food or liquid spills.
- d. Cadets will not be boisterous or noisy in Duncan Dining Hall. It is the dining room for all cadets and their rights and privileges must be respected. Consideration of others is one of the basic elements of gentlemanly and ladylike conduct. Cadets will show consideration for their fellow cadets.
- e. Remember that obscenity, vulgarity, and off-color tales do not belong in a cadet's conversation at any time, especially at meals.
- f. The senior cadets will set the proper example of manners, consideration of others, and the tone of conversational decorum.
- g. Unkind and unfavorable comments about other cadets and opinions about seniors are not appropriate.
- h. Cadets will recognize when guests are present and converse with them appropriately, especially if seated beside them. Engaging them in polite conversation, if the opportunity presents itself, will be appreciated by the guests and their host. All matters under discussion should be in keeping with good taste and not cause embarrassment by discussing personalities, items or people with which guests are obviously unfamiliar and/or in which they are not interested.

(3) Place Setting

For meals, the place service usually consists of a serving plate, a fork, a knife, a spoon, and a drinking glass. The main plate will be placed centered on the chair. The fork will be placed to the left of the plate, with the tines facing away from the chair. The knife will be placed to the right of the plate, with the cutting edge facing the plate. The spoon will be placed to the right of the knife. The drinking glass will be placed to the right of the plate, just beyond the point of the knife. A folded napkin may be placed to the left of the fork. The napkin may be placed in the lap after sitting.

CHAPTER 25: PHYSICAL FITNESS TEST

1. CORPS PHYSICAL FITNESS TEST

- A. As a senior military college, the Texas A&M Corps of Cadets requires all cadets to achieve physical fitness standards during the fall and spring semesters. First year cadets must achieve these standards by the end of the spring semester.
- B. All cadets will take a Corps PFT during the Fall and Spring semesters. The spring semester Corps PFT scores will be a part of Cadet Challenge.
- C. The Corps Physical Fitness Test (PFT) is a measurement of cardiovascular and muscular fitness. It consists of push-ups, planks, and a 1.5-mile run.
- D. Cadets must achieve the following standards to pass the Corps Physical Fitness Test:

Exercise	Male	Female
Push-Ups (2 min.)	42	19
Planks	1:03	1:03
1.5-Mile Run	13:15	15:45

- E. Cadets will conduct a diagnostic Corps PFT early in the fall semester. This PFT is for commanders to have a fitness baseline for their unit and identify cadets who need assistance with physical training and/or nutrition. Towards the end of the fall semester, all cadets will take the Corps PFT, and these scores will be entered into the Cadet Management System (CMS) as a part of the cadet's performance record. During the spring semester, all cadets will take the Spring Corps PFT, and these scores will be entered into the CMS as a part of the cadet's performance record and used for award points. Scoring for PFT events is contained in Appendix A.
- F. To retain membership in the Corps Cadets, all cadets must pass the Corps PFT each semester.
 - (1) Cadets who fail to meet Corps PFT requirements will be dismissed from the Corps at the end of the semester in which they failed the PFT.
 - (2) Seniors who fail to meet PFT requirements by the second Friday preceding Final Review will not be eligible to march Final Review.
 - (3) Cadets who demonstrate significant progress toward achieving physical fitness standards may be retained in the Corps of Cadets at the Commandant's discretion.
 - (4) Cadets who fail to meet Corps PFT requirements but pass their ROTC fitness requirements may be retained in the Corps of Cadets at the Commandant's discretion. ROTC departments will coordinate with Corps Operations to validate compliance.
- G. Commandant's Staff members may test cadets at any time, with adequate notice.
- H. Corps PFT scores will be calculated using the Physical Fitness Test Scoring Table.

2. CORPS PFT EXCEPTIONS

- A. Cadets unable to complete Corps PFT due to a medical condition will provide their Operations Advisor a Physical Fitness Test Excusal Form located in Ch 23 of the CPG with a doctor's note no later than 72 hours prior to a scheduled test. Only Operations Advisors will determine if cadets are exempt from elements of the test or may offer a walk test in lieu of the 1.5-mile run. Cadets must complete a partial PFT unless their medical condition precludes all activity.
- B. Only Operations Advisors will enter a PFT excusal or partial score into CMS. Operations Advisors will enter a note into CMS that details the reason for the exemption without compromising the cadet's private medical information.
- C. Cadets who use a medical excuse to exempt their participation in two consecutive PFTs will be evaluated for continued membership in the Corps of Cadets.
- D. Corps Walk Test
 - (1) Administer the Walk Test when:
 - (a) A medical excuse from a qualified medical provider is provided stating the run event is not to be executed. The medical excuse must state when the restriction will begin and estimate when it will end.
 - (b) Evidence of a very recent injury from which cadet is recovering.
 - (c) Evidence of an ongoing rehabilitation of prior injury/surgery which precludes participation in the run.
 - (2) Distance. 2.5-mile course over flat surfaces, comparable to that used for the run test.
 - (3) Equipment. Stopwatch, scorecard to record time, appropriate footwear for cadets walking the test. Cadets may be paced by another individual but may not be physically aided in passing the test in any way.
 - (4) Personnel. At least one scorer for each three cadets testing; Operations Advisor supervision required.
 - (5) Performance Standards. Cadets must complete the course layout in the allotted amount of time to receive a passing score. One foot must always be in contact with the ground when executing the walk test. If cadets break into a running stride at any time, their performance in the event will be terminated and they will receive a failing score.

(6) Test Standards:

Sex	Maximum Passing Time
Male	38:00
Female	41:25

CHAPTER 26: WEIGHT MANAGEMENT

1. POLICY

- A. As members of a senior military college, all cadets will maintain appropriate weight standards to present a proper appearance in uniform.
- B. All cadets will have their height/weight measured during the Fall and Spring semesters.
- C. All cadets will conduct a Corps diagnostic height/weight (body fat, as required) measurement early in the fall semester. This measurement is to identify cadets who may need assistance with weight management and/or nutrition. During both the fall and spring semesters, all cadets will take a Corps height/weight measurement, and these scores will be entered into the CMS as a part of the cadets' performance record.
- D. Additional height/weight checks may be completed any time cadet leadership or Commandant's Staff deem necessary.

2. PROCEDURES

- A. Height/weight checks will be conducted with the cadet in PT gear, socks, and no shoes.
- B. Compliance will be determined using the Corps Height and Weight Standards.
- C. Cadets not meeting the weight standard must be measured for body fat. Body composition evaluations will be estimated using the circumference-based method conducted by Office of the Commandant staff personnel. Female staff members will measure female cadets. All measurements are taken on the bare skin. Without causing indentation, the tape will be applied to the skin with sufficient tension to hold it in place as a measurement is read. Measurements will be taken three times. The lowest measurement obtained will be utilized/recorded.
 - (1) Circumference measurements are taken along the abdomen. Measure the abdominal circumference against the skin at the navel, level and parallel to the floor. Arms are straight and relaxed at the sides. Take the measurement at the end of normal, relaxed exhalation. Round down to nearest ½ inch.
 - (2) Record all measurements in CMS. The built-in calculator, based on the 2023 U.S. Army body fat calculator, will determine the body fat composition percentage.
- D. Body fat taping will be completed within 24 hours of failing height/weight check. Data will be entered in CMS within 24 hours of completion of weight/body fat measurements.
- E. Body fat limits are 25% for males and 32% for females.
- F. All cadets must pass the Corps weight standard each semester to retain membership in the Corps. Traditional freshman cadets have until the end of the academic year to meet the weight/body fat standards.
 - (1) Cadets who fail to meet Corps weight/body fat requirements will be dismissed from the Corps at the end of the semester in which they failed the weight/body fat measurement.
 - (2) Seniors who fail to meet Corps weight/body fat requirements by the second Friday preceding Final Review will not be eligible to march Final Review.

- (3) Cadets who demonstrate significant progress toward achieving weight/body fat standards may be retained in the Corps of Cadets at the Commandant's discretion.
- (4) Contracted cadets who fail the corps weight/body fat requirement but meet service weight/body composition requirements may be retained in the Corps of Cadets at the Commandant's discretion. ROTC departments will coordinate with Corps Operations to validate compliance.

CHAPTER 27: INSPECTION PROGRAM

1. SCHOLASTIC INSPECTIONS

The Corps Scholastics Chain (Officer/Sergeant, Corps to Unit) is responsible for coordinating and executing inspections of the Academic Day and Evening Study Time conditions. Major Unit staff will ensure nightly inspections of EST occur within their units.

- A. Cadets will post their current degree plan in their rooms. The classes they have finished will be highlighted or have a check mark next to the course name to monitor progress.
- B. Grades must be properly posted on a Grade Summary Sheet or other grade tracking program within one day of receipt. Grade tracking records need not be posted if the cadet wishes to maintain the privacy of grades.
- C. All cadets must have their weekly class schedule and EST GPA Status Level posted on their door card. Scheduled tutoring and supplemental instruction sessions should be included on the cadet's weekly schedule. The door card template is available here.

- (1) Fill in the appropriate boxes with "Class". Do not specify the subject, class number, or section number. To add text to a box, right-click on the box and select 'Add Text,' or left-click in the box and type. Make sure the times of your class match the graphic schedule. If the times are different, drag a box to change the length.
- (2) When all the courses are added, delete unused boxes.
- (3) Change the dashed box outline to a solid line.
- (4) Print the graphic schedule along with a copy of student course schedule. Then cut out the door card and put it on the door.
- (5) Be sure to include all SIs, Tutoring sessions, religious events, and all other weekly recurring events.
- (6) All Sunday outfit meetings will end prior to the start of EST at 2000.
- (7) Any picture or image used as part of the background cannot consist of any inappropriate material and must still allow the schedule to be clearly visible and easily read.
- (8) Use of abbreviations by all cadets is authorized.

2. CADET INSPECTION PROGRAM

The intent for dorm and room inspections is to ensure the highest health and welfare standards, room orderliness, uniform compliance, and adherence to directives.

- A. Corps Military Proficiency Inspections. This includes announced and unannounced inspections of uniforms and/or dormitory rooms by cadet staff personnel. The purpose is to ensure good order, discipline, and a means to grade units for major flag awards.
- B. Standard of Living Inspections. A Standard of Living Inspection periodically inspects the cleanliness of all cadet rooms, freshmen through seniors. These inspections also help prepare outfits for other inspections throughout the year, such as Commandant's Room Inspections and the Corps-level Military Proficiency Inspections.

3. COMMANDANT'S INSPECTION

- A. Once each semester the Commandant's Staff will conduct an announced inspection of each Major Unit. This inspection ensures health and welfare standards are maintained within the dormitory and reinforces the Cadet Inspection Program.
- B. The Commandant may authorize additional inspections not previously mentioned. These additional inspections may be announced or unannounced.

CHAPTER 28: CORRECTIVE PHYSICAL TRAINING

1. GENERAL

The purpose of the Corrective Physical Training (CPT) Policy is to further define permissible activity as it relates to administering physical training as a form of corrective action for minor infractions of cadet performance or behavior. CPT provides cadet leaders a tool to motivate and instill discipline in underclassmen while drawing attention to and counseling/correcting minor infractions. Individual Corrective Physical Training (ICPT) provides leaders a tool for correcting the behavior or actions of an individual. Group Corrective Physical Training (GCPT) provides a cadet leader the vehicle to administer CPT to a group of cadets (within a unit, i.e., squad or platoon) for minor infractions. Serious disciplinary infractions will be referred to the chain of command. "Punitive PT" (used solely to punish) is not authorized – cadet leaders using punitive measures or conducting CPT outside the following guidelines will incur disciplinary actions in accordance with The Standard and University Student Rules.

2. COUNSELING

Reverting to a CPT session for a cadet(s) who needs to be motivated or whose actions need correction should not be the default answer. Counseling of the cadet(s) by the leader needs to have occurred first. Possibly more than one counseling session needs to have occurred before the leader determines CPT is required. If the leader determines to conduct a CPT session, counseling of the cadet(s) during the CPT session must occur to ensure the cadet(s) understand their poor performance and how to correct their actions.

3. INDIVIDUAL CORRECTIVE PHYSICAL TRAINING

- A. Cadet leaders may begin to administer ICPT the week following onboarding, provided cadet trainees have passed a medical screening and are not currently on medical restrictions.
- B. Only cadet leaders possessing a numbered "Corrective Physical Training Instruction Card" for the current year may conduct CPT. The CPT Card must be available on cadet leader's person during the administration of CPT.
- C. A cadet leader will only administer ICPT for a single cadet.
- D. Each ICPT session will include a combination of at least three different exercises from the list below (as outlined on the CPT Instruction Card) and will include a 30-second break midway through the session where the leader should be counseling the cadet. Cadets will select exercises that use different muscle groups.
- E. Time limits for an ICPT session:
 - (1) Fall semester: 3-min exercise / 30-second rest / 3-min exercise.
 - (2) Spring semester: 4-min exercise / 30-second rest / 4-min exercise.
- F. Only the following exercises are authorized:

Aerobic Exercises	Upper-Body Exercises	Lower-Body Exercises	Abdominal Exercises
Mountain Climbers*	Pull-Ups*	Squats	Crunches
Side Straddle Hops*	Dips	Squat Thrusts*	Sit-ups
Stationary Double Time	Push-Ups (Hands Shoulder Width)*	Stationary Lunges	Planks
Steam Engines*	Arm Rotations		Flutter Kicks
Burpees*			Russian Twists

*Exercises are done with a single-count cadence.

- G. Cadets conducting an ICPT session will emphasize proper techniques. Do not reinforce poor techniques. If a cadet is struggling with technique, move to the next exercise. At the conclusion of the ICPT session, the leader needs to demonstrate the proper technique if there were problems.
- H. Cadets will empty the contents of their pockets prior to performing CPT.

4. EARNING A CORRECTIVE PHYSICAL TRAINING INSTRUCTION CARD

- A. Each CPT Instruction Card is numbered and has the cadet's name and the issuing authority on the front of the card.
- B. A cadet must be in a leadership position (Team Leader, Squad Leader, Platoon/Flight Leader or Sergeant, First Sergeant, Executive Officer or Commanding Officer) to earn a CPT Instruction Card.
- C. To earn a CPT Instruction Card, a cadet must first demonstrate the ability to properly execute each exercise and professionally conduct one CPT session. Minor Unit leaders will facilitate CPT certification to ensure unit standardization of training and submission of certified trainee names to their respective Operations Advisor.
- D. Operations Advisors are the issuing authority for their units upon the recommendation of the Minor Unit Commander.
- E. CPT Instruction Cards are only valid for the current academic year.
- F. Cadets who abuse the CPT program (improperly execute a CPT session, allow their CPT Instruction Card to be used by another cadet, or otherwise violate the CPT program) will lose their leadership position and have their CPT Instruction Card revoked. Cadets could also face disciplinary action.

5. RESTRICTIONS

- A. Group CPT will never be conducted because of a single cadet's actions.
- B. A cadet will complete no more than one CPT session in a one-hour period.

- C. A second upperclassman cadet is required to be present for a CPT session. The second cadet observes the session and uses a watch to keep track of session time.
- D. CPT will not be administered during the Academic Day or Evening Study Time. Weekend CPT must be authorized in writing by the Major Unit Commander via Military Letter.
- E. CPT may only be administered on the Quadrangle, Spence Park, Simpson Drill Field, and the Obstacle Course training area. Fightin' Texas Aggie Band leaders may use the Band Field to administer CPT.
- F. Running is not an authorized exercise for CPT. A leader conducting CPT will not vigorously run cadet(s) to one of the approved locations to conduct CPT. Jogging to the location is appropriate.
- G. ICPT is authorized in dormitory hallways when inclement weather precluded ICPT from being conducted outside. At no time is GCPT conducted in the dormitory.
- H. CPT is limited to the exercises, techniques, and duration as described herein and on the CPT Instruction Card.
- I. CPT will NOT be performed:
 - (1) While in "Class B" Uniform (PT Gear or C's & T's are the only authorized uniforms for CPT.)
 - (2) While in a medically restricted status.
 - (3) At any location other than the areas identified previously.
 - (4) In soggy or watered down areas or ground that is hazardous for training (i.e. gravel, brush, etc.).
 - (5) In confined spaces or any location or environment considered unsafe where a cadet could possibly be injured.
 - (6) By cadets not authorized to conduct CPT (cadets not issued a CPT Instruction Card; cadets not in possession of their CPT instruction Card; cadets conducting CPT with a CPT Card issued to a different cadet).
- J. Violations of these guidelines will be investigated as potential hazing incidents.

6. ADDITIONAL CONSIDERATIONS FOR CONDUCTING CPT

- A. During Hot Weather:
 - (1) Increase water consumption and supervise regular intake by cadets.
 - (2) Regulate training according to the heat conditions as posted on cadets.tamu.edu and as defined in the Heat Condition Table in Hot Weather Safety.
 - (3) Be alert to heat illness symptoms and other physical illnesses and take appropriate actions (outlined in the Safety Program and on the "Corrective Physical Training Instruction Card").
 - (4) Modify uniform clothing, as authorized, for proper UV radiation protection, ventilation, and dissipation of body heat.
 - (5) CPT will not be conducted during "Black Flag" conditions.

B. During Cold Weather:

- (1) Ensure water consumption by cadets.
- (2) Guard against hypothermia by ensuring proper clothing and use of gloves and head covering.
- (3) Do not require cadets who have worked up a sweat to stand or remain outside in the cold weather conditions. Build in time to have cadets change into dry, warm clothes prior to further training or formation.

7. ON-THE-SPOT DISCIPLINE

- A. The purpose of On-The-Spot Discipline is to correct in an immediately impactful way any cadet failing to comply with the Standard. It is used as a corrective action for ignorance of required knowledge, or a conscious disregard for the Standard.
- B. On-The-Spot Discipline will consist of a class set of standard pushups in Class B uniform or below by a cadet. This action is only authorized on the Quad during unit activity times or immediately preceding morning or evening formations.
- C. A correcting cadet will always push with the corrected cadet regardless of class.
- D. Corrective action is not authorized on football game days.
- E. A standard pushup does not involve holding in a downward position and does not incorporate any other physical training.

CHAPTER 29: DEMERIT SYSTEM

1. GENERAL

Demerits serve both as a disciplinary tool and a performance indicator. Unit Commanders are responsible for ensuring the system works properly. All demerit codes have a maximum number of demerits assigned to them (e.g., if a demerit code has a max limit of 6 demerits, anywhere between 0-6 demerits may be issued for that offense). Assigning more than the maximum number of demerits could result in the issuer receiving demerits.

2. AUTHORITY

Demerits are awarded by members of the Commandant's staff, the Corps Commander, major and minor unit commanders, outfit commanders, special unit commanders, and designated cadet staff members.

3. AWARDING DEMERITS

Demerits are awarded in accordance with the Schedule of Demerits and may be removed by serving restricted weekends.

SCHEDULE OF DEMERITS

602	1-10	Failure to Enforce Standards

4. ACCUMULATION OF DEMERITS

Any cadet who receives 15 demerits will automatically receive a Restricted Weekend. Cadets normally have two weeks to complete their restricted weekend from the date entered into the Cadet Management System (CMS). If a cadet receives 45 demerits or more in one semester, their status in the Corps of Cadets will be reviewed and a recommendation made concerning their continued membership.

5. RIGHT TO APPEAL

Cadets have the right to appeal the demerits assigned by following the instructions online in the Cadet Management System (CMS). All appeals will be filed with the issuing individual within three working days of when the demerits are awarded. Office of the Commandant staff will resolve disputes resulting from the appeals process.

CHAPTER 30: MARCHING TOURS

1. GENERAL

Cadet conduct violations warranting marching tours are considered more severe than violations that would call for demerits and less severe than actions that would call for Restricted Weekends. Marching tours may be awarded for multiple infractions that, individually, would only warrant demerits.

2. AUTHORITY

Marching tours are awarded by members of the Commandant's staff, the Corps Commander, major and minor unit commanders, outfit commanders, special unit commanders, and designated cadet staff members.

3. AWARDING MARCHING TOURS

A cadet may be awarded one or two hours of marching in conjunction with a restricted weekend, but a marching tour will not automatically be issued with a restricted weekend.

Code	Description
200	Requiring underclass cadets to perform unauthorized duties
201	Repeated minor offenses
202	Blatant Disrespect or Insubordination
203	Failure to appear at Corps wide functions where military letters are required
204	Violation of a directive
205	Repeated evasion of responsibility (i.e., Failure to perform assigned task)
207	Repeated violation of study conditions, quiet hours, or scholastic policy
208	Breach of restriction
209	Repeated academic neglect, includes non-attendance of scheduled classes
210	Improper conduct in Dining Hall, includes violations of Dining Hall Policy
211	Improper care of assigned property
212	Violation of visitation policy
213	Use of obscene, profane, or improper language or gestures
214	Failure to wear any uniform to class or required building
215	Excess Demerits
601	Commandant's Room Inspection
602	Failure to Enforce Standards

4. COMPLETING MARCHING TOURS

- A. A cadet must complete an awarded marching tour by the deadline indicated in CMS. Failure to complete a marching tour will result in the assignment of a Restricted Weekend in addition to the original marching tour. Cadets who fail to complete a marching tour by the suspense deadline will be denied certain privileges detailed below until they complete their marching tour:
 - (1) Removal from leadership (green/gray tab) position. Command team members will be evaluated for continued service in their respective positions.
 - (2) Prohibited from participating in any special unit activities (to include ROTC special unit activities) or Corps sports team activities.
 - (3) Denial of Military Letter requests to leave campus for the weekend.
- B. It is the responsibility of the cadet who was awarded the marching tour to schedule an assigned marching tour with the Corps Discipline Sergeant via cadets.tamu.edu. See Marching Tour Drill for Marching Tours execution.

5. RIGHT TO APPEAL

Cadets have the right to appeal a marching tour by following the instructions online in the Cadet Management System (CMS). All appeals will be filed with the issuing individual within three working days of when the marching tours are awarded. Office of the Commandant staff will resolve disputes resulting from the appeals process.

CHAPTER 31: RESTRICTED WEEKENDS

1. GENERAL

Restricted Weekends (RWs) are awarded for serious cadet conduct violations.

2. AUTHORITY

Restricted Weekends are awarded by members of the Commandant's staff, the Corps Commander, major and minor unit commanders, outfit commanders, special unit commanders, and designated cadet staff members.

3. AWARDING RESTRICTED WEEKENDS

Restricted Weekends are awarded for the violations listed below.

4. COMPLETING RESTRICTED WEEKENDS

- A. All Restricted Weekends must be completed by the suspense deadline as indicated in CMS. Cadets may sign up for Restricted Weekends on cadets.tamu.edu.

- B. In rare circumstances, cadets may petition the Corps Discipline Officer to complete their RWs by serving a Restricted Week or by completing an eight-hour work detail with Parsons Mounted Cavalry or with the Uniform Distribution Center. Restricted Weeks and work details will be coordinated through the Corps Discipline Officer and must be completed by the original suspense deadline.
- C. Cadets who fail to complete an RW by the suspense deadline will be denied certain privileges detailed below until they complete their RW:
 - (1) Removal from leadership (green/gray tab) position. Command team members will be evaluated for continued service in their respective positions.
 - (2) Prohibited from participating in any special unit activities (to include ROTC special unit activities) or Corps sports team activities.
 - (3) Denial of Military Letter requests to leave campus for the weekend.
- D. If a cadet earns three Restricted Weekends in one semester, the Corps Discipline Officer will consult with the cadet's commander to determine if a Cadet Performance Review Board is warranted.
- E. Failure to complete an RW by two Sundays prior to the last day of classes each semester will result in dismissal from the Corps. Cases involving graduating seniors with outstanding RWs will be sent to the Student Conduct Office for a formal university hearing.
- F. Seniors who fail to complete an RW by two Sundays prior to the last day of classes in the spring semester will not be eligible to march Final Review.

5. RIGHT TO APPEAL

Cadets have the right to appeal RWs assigned by following the instructions online in the Cadet Management System (CMS). All appeals will be filed with the issuing individual within three (3) working days of when the RWs are awarded. Office of the Commandant staff will resolve disputes resulting from the appeals process.

Appendix A: HISTORY AND TRADITIONS OF THE CORPS

A BRIEF HISTORY OF TEXAS A&M UNIVERSITY

On Monday, October 2, 1876, the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas, the first state-supported institution of higher learning, was officially opened for registration. The opening resulted from the Morrill Act passed by Congress fourteen years earlier, which provided a permanent fund to be raised through the sale of public land given to the states. The accruing interest from this fund was to be used to support a technical college which, among other things, specialized in the studies of mechanics, agriculture, and military tactics. Monday, October 2, 1876, was the first official day of classes at A&M. Unfortunately, only a handful of students appeared on that appointed matriculation day. On Wednesday, October 4, 1876, forty students and six faculty members began instruction, with Thomas Gathright as acting president. Governor Richard Coke was present on this day to dedicate the school and to wish it success; his advice is still included as required knowledge for cadets.

In the first few years, the College fought a hard battle for survival. A turning point came when Lawrence Sullivan Ross, then Governor of Texas, accepted the appointment as president in 1890. Sul Ross, loved and respected by Texans for his actions as a soldier, statesman, and knightly gentleman, led A&M from a state of near failure to a secure position as a successful and growing institution. He is fondly remembered for his institution of discipline, organization, and honor into the Corps of Cadets. "Sully" strongly supported competitive sports as a unifying activity that built character, physical courage, and fitness. Texas A&M fielded its first football team in 1893, but not until the next year did it play any road games, including the first in the long and memorable series with Texas University (T.U.). At this time, the important buildings were Gathright Hall and the Main Building (in which classes were held). In 1900, there were 327 cadets in the Corps.

Once firmly established, Texas A&M continued to grow with enrollment reaching 1200 in 1912. It was during this year that disaster struck with the burning of the old mess hall, followed in a few months by a terrible fire which razed the Main Building, destroying most of the early records of the College. Sbis Hall and the Academic Building rose in their place, symbolizing the dauntless spirit of the institution to continue despite its setbacks.

Texas A&M has one of the most comprehensive ROTC programs in the nation. Except for the three service academies, the Corps of Cadets is one of the largest sources of commissioned officers for the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, and Air Force. Since establishing the Reserve Officer Training Program at the institution in 1917, A&M has provided military training to more than 70,000 men and women and has afforded advanced training leading to a commission in the Armed Forces to more than 25,000 men and women.

From the first days of A&M's history, the military tradition has been deeply ingrained in this school as a distinguishing element of its character. Since the Spanish-American War of 1898, Aggies have served with honor in every conflict in which the United States has been involved.

In April 1917, America was drawn into the conflict raging in Europe that came to be known as World War I. In typical Aggie fashion, cadets answered the call to arms. As one body, the senior class of 1917 volunteered a month before the end of school for officer training at Leon Springs, near San Antonio. Recognizing the patriotic motive of this action, the College awarded them their degrees. Training could not be interrupted for academic ceremonies on the campus, so the graduation exercises for Texas A&M were held under a large oak tree in the hills near San Antonio. Originally, it was reported 55 Aggies who served in the war gave their lives in the service of their country. It has now been determined a total of 70 Aggies lost their lives as a result of service during the war. Countless others who served were wounded.

The College steadily expanded between the two World Wars of the 20th Century. By 1941, the enrollment stood at 6,500. The footprint of the college developed from the original two buildings and 2,416 acres to over seventy major buildings with a total value of approximately 15 million dollars.

On December 7, 1941, America was plunged into World War II, and Aggies were again quick to respond to the nation's call to arms. During World War II, over 14,000 Aggies served as officers. Additionally, over 6,000 others, mostly noncommissioned officers, served effectively as the direct result of A&M training. The service of over 20,000 Aggies in the war did much to enhance the brilliant record of Texas A&M as well as to uphold the tradition of "the Fightin' Texas Aggies."

During the early stages of World War II, General Douglas MacArthur wrote: "...Texas A&M is writing its own military history in the blood of its graduates...No name stands out more brilliantly than the heroic defender of Corregidor, General George F. Moore. Whenever I see a Texas man in my command, I have a feeling of confidence..."

With the end of the war and a return to a regular nine-month academic program, the enrollment of A&M skyrocketed. Returning veterans, aided by the G.I. Bill, brought the college's enrollment to an historic peak of 9,000 students in the 1946-47 school years. For a few years, the College even maintained an annex at an inactive Air Force base near Bryan (now known as the RELLIS Campus). Despite overcrowded conditions, the expansion and development of its education facilities continued. General Omar Bradley told the June 1950 graduating class: "...At Texas A&M there has been an almost unlimited opportunity for you in science, in agriculture, and veterinary medicine, in engineering and arts. In true Texas tradition, you have been provided with outstanding training in military science, in aeronautical science, and in physical education. The men of Texas A&M can stand up to any men in the world and compare favorably their education and training for leadership – leadership in the pursuits of peace, and, if it comes to war, leadership in battle. This combination is significant, for the capability for a productive peace, coupled with the ability to defend your beliefs, as well as your resources, is essential to survival..."

Eight sons of Texas A&M have received the nation's highest military honor, the Medal of Honor. Over 303 Texas A&M students have reached General or Flag Officer rank. Among these was the late General George F. Moore, 1908, one-time Commandant of Cadets, whose brilliant service in the defense of Corregidor is one of the brightest pages of military history. Today, the outstanding unit of the Corps of Cadets carries the General George F. Moore flag.

Based on the great expansion in number and diversity of academic subjects, the name of the College was changed to Texas A&M University on August 23, 1963. Today, there are sixteen separate colleges: Agriculture and Life Sciences, Architecture, Mays Business School, Dentistry, Education and Human Development, Engineering, Geosciences, Bush School of Government & Public Service, Law, Liberal Arts, Medicine, Nursing, Pharmacy, Public Health, Science, Veterinary Medicine and Biomedical Sciences. In the fall of 1964, women were admitted to A&M, and in 1965, membership in the Corps of Cadets became voluntary for students. Women were first admitted into the Corps of Cadets in 1974. Initially, they were assigned to their own units under male leadership, which they progressively replaced. The first gender integrated unit was the Aggie Band in 1985. In 1989, Squadron 15 became the first non-band outfit to be integrated. Today 35 of 41 units in the Corps are integrated. In 1971, Texas A&M University became only one of four institutions in the country to be designated a Sea Grant College, and in 1989 it was awarded Space Grant status.

Texas A&M is one of only six four-year institutions of higher education in the nation with a seven day a week, 24 hours a day Corps of Cadets. Its military science programs support the three ROTC programs, leading to commissions in the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, and Air Force.

Aggie cadets live in dormitories in military-style organizations. Over and above any purely utilitarian value, the military training gives these Aggies superlative esprit de corps and leadership development. As a result of having undergone the experiences of discipline and education together, all cadets are forged in a fraternal organization whose members display a great loyalty and devotion to each other and to their school, and they have learned to live by the Aggie Code of Honor under demanding conditions.

AGGIE TRADITIONS

"There's a Spirit can ne'er be told..."

Texas A&M, like most institutions with a long and honorable history, has its respected traditions and ceremonies. Observing these traditions and participating in these special events are an integral part of the Aggie way of life. It is considered a privilege and duty for cadets to do their part in upholding these traditions.

A. The Aggie Spirit

The Corps of Cadets has long been known for its gallant fighting spirit. You, as a member of the Corps, will feel this spirit and will make it a part of your daily life, for it is this spirit that embodies all with the feeling of unity and devotion to A&M. It is a spirit gained through hard work and loyalty to the Corps and to Texas A&M University, and it attaches itself so firmly to cadets of A&M that they carry it with them the rest of their lives - Once an Aggie, Always an Aggie.

The Aggie spirit helps to mold a person's character. The things one does and the way one lives with fellow cadets make a permanent impression. As an individual, one works for the good of the Corps and, by personal actions and influence, one aids others to do the same. Cadets who came before you have been responsible for preserving the best in our Aggie traditions and, as you learn these traditions, you will be responsible for passing them on, untarnished.

B. The Cadet Uniform

The respect you hold for your cadet uniform reflects your Aggie spirit. The uniform you wear gives you the outward appearance of a cadet, but the way you treat that uniform and conduct yourself while wearing it will be the test of whether you are true to the things for which it stands. A pride and an obligation go with wearing the uniform - pride in your membership in the famed Corps of Cadets, and the obligation of upholding the good name of the Corps. It is an honor to wear the uniform because previous Aggies before you have made a splendid name for the Corps of Cadets. By their actions and upright conduct, Aggies have become publicly recognized as honorable and chivalrous gentlemen and dignified ladies.

C. Aggie Friendliness

The open friendliness of Aggies is a tradition which sets Texas A&M apart from any other school. The friendly atmosphere of the A&M campus continually surprises visitors to our campus. Aggie friendliness is one of those traditions that can keep the Aggie Spirit alive and is one of the most important things an Aggie can learn and practice.

However, as Texas A&M has become larger, this heritage has become more difficult to perpetuate. Whenever a cadet sees another cadet with someone they do not know, they should meet that person, regardless of whether that person is a cadet or not.

It is important for members of the Corps as “Keepers of the Spirit” and “Guardians of Tradition,” to keep this alive by being helpful and friendly to all visitors and by greeting all with a friendly and distinct “HOWDY!” Freshmen cadets learn this tradition of friendliness their first semester here, and they should continue this practice throughout their lifetime.

D. Twelfth Man

In Dallas on January 2, 1922, A&M played defending national champion, Center College, in the first post-season game in the southwest. In this hard-fought game, which produced national publicity, an underdog Aggie team was slowly but surely whipping a team which boasted having three All Americans. Unfortunately, the first half produced so many injuries for A&M that Coach D. X. Bible feared he would not have enough men to finish the game. At that moment, he called into the Aggie section of the stands for E. King Gill, a reserve who had left football after the regular season to play basketball. Gill, who was spotting players and was not in football uniform, willingly volunteered and donned the uniform of injured player, Heine Weir.

Although he did not play in the game, his readiness to play symbolized the willingness of the Aggie fans to support their team to the point of entering the game. A statue of E. King Gill stands to the northeast of Kyle Field to remind today's Aggies of their constant obligation to preserve the spirit of the Twelfth Man. That spirit of readiness, desire, and enthusiasm has continued through the years, and to this day the Aggie student body, known as the Twelfth Man, remains standing at football games as a gesture of its loyalty and readiness for duty. But the fine tradition of the Twelfth Man embraces more than mere athletic events. It is the essence of the Aggie Spirit that unites all Aggies into a fellowship of service and devotion to each other and their school.

E. Silver Taps

Silver Taps is one of the most meaningful and important ceremonies at A&M. It is the final tribute to a current A&M student who has died. The notice of commemoration is posted at the base of the flagpole in front of the Academic Building. The ceremony is held on the first Tuesday of every month of the academic year at 2230 hours if a current student has recently passed away. In deference to the solemnness of the ceremony, there is no smoking and no display of affection. All lights in campus buildings in the vicinity of the Academic Building are extinguished during the ceremony. Members of the student body gather in front of the Academic Building. Friends and families of the deceased Aggie(s) stand in front of the statue of Lawrence Sullivan Ross. The Ross Volunteer Company Firing Squad fires three volleys in honor of the departed Aggie. Buglers from the Aggie Band play a special rendition of Taps three times and the bells in the Albritton Bell Tower toll 21 times in honor of the fallen Aggie. All cadets are expected to attend the ceremony and stand at attention. After the last note of Taps has faded, the firing detail will assume the position of Parade Rest while the Bell Tower tolls 21 times. All students return silently to their dormitories after the bells complete their toll and begin playing other music.

F. Aggie Muster

“Softly call the Muster, let comrade answer ‘Here’...”

Aggies have celebrated April 21 – the anniversary of the Battle of San Jacinto – since the earliest days of Texas A&M, when it was a school holiday. Over the decades, former students used April 21 as a day to reunite with fellow Aggies. During World War II, a story gained fame of Texas Aggies led by General George F. Moore, Class of 1908, marking San Jacinto Day 1942 while under siege on Corregidor. The next year, The Association of Former Students named Aggies' April 21 gatherings "Muster" and led former students in holding over 500 Musters worldwide. Today, Aggies still gather in hundreds of locations worldwide, wherever they are, on April 21. Aggies have mustered amidst guns of war on the Anzio beachhead in Italy in 1943, at Guadalcanal, on Okinawa in 1945, on the Korean Peninsula, in the rice paddies of Vietnam, and most recently in the far-off lands of Southwest Asia and Afghanistan. At Muster, the "Roll Call of the Absent" is conducted and a living Aggie comrade answers "Here" for each of the departed, signifying the departed comrade's Aggie Spirit. At the campus Muster, the Ross Volunteer Company Firing Squad fires three volleys and buglers from the Aggie Band play Silver Taps. This tradition is symbolic of Aggie unity and is unique among universities of the world.

G. Midnight Yell Practice

Midnight Yell practice, held on the night prior to a home football, represents more than just another campus event. It is the time and place where enthusiasm is generated. The new student often gets the first feeling of real school spirit on these occasions. At yell practice, the yell leaders take their places in front of the student body. The Fighting Texas Aggie band plays, the students practice the yells, and yell leaders tell inspirational stories. These are fine, moving occasions, long remembered in hearts of Aggies. For Midnight Yell Practice, the band forms near the quad at 2330 hours. Junior cadets and their dates fall in behind the band as it marches to yell practice.

After a victorious game on Kyle Field, the fish in the Corps used to celebrate the victory by throwing the yell leaders into the Fish Pond. The Yell Leaders then led a short yell practice on the steps of the YMCA Building to prepare for the next game. With the renovation of Kyle Field, this practice has changed. The fish capture the Yell Leaders on the field, but Yell Practice is conducted in the stadium. Afterwards the Fish escort the yell leaders to Fish Pond.

If the Aggie Team is outscored, the Twelfth Man remains standing in the stadium for a short yell practice following the game to display the continuing support for the Aggie Team and to prepare for the next game.

H. Corps Trips

During the football season, the entire Corps of Cadets may attend one or more out-of-town games, known as "Corps Trips." The first Corps Trip was in 1887, when the student body made a mass migration to Dallas during the state fair. Today, each Corps Trip means a weekend away from the regular routine of the campus and another occasion to demonstrate the support the Twelfth Man has for the Aggie Team. On the day of the game, cadets conduct a parade in the downtown streets. Aggies take care their actions on these trips always reflect credit upon Texas A&M and especially the Corps of Cadets. At the game, the Corps yells for the team and the band wins the halftime show with inspiring military music and precision marching. Corps Trips are some of the most memorable and enjoyable events of the year for all cadets.

I. Elephant Walk

Before the last home football game, the seniors gather for the annual Elephant Walk. In an act symbolizing old elephants searching for a place to die, they visit all the important historical locations on campus to remember good times and friends before wandering off to some secluded spot as if to await the coming of death as old “elephants.” This event is symbolic of the fact, as former students, they will never again stand as part of the student portion of the famed Twelfth Man at a home football game.

J. March to the Brazos

On April 1, 1977, the old tradition of March to the Brazos was reinstated. In years past, cadets participated in a forced march to the Brazos River to keep them from playing April Fools’ pranks on campus. Today, the march is held in late April or early May. The cadets raise money from students, businesses, and others for local charities. On the return march, underclassmen cadets symbolically assume their positions for the following year, while the senior cadets return together as a class on buses. For cadets, March to the Brazos is one of the most anticipated events of the year.

K. Family Weekend

Each year on Family Weekend (formerly Parents Weekend), individual cadet and unit awards are presented. The weekend, normally held in early April, includes ceremonies, social activities, and a military review in honor of the families of cadets. Many units sponsor activities to provide the cadets and their families the opportunity to meet each other.

L. The Aggie Ring

The Texas A&M senior ring is a tradition as grand and as revered as the University itself. The ring is symbolic of hard work and of membership in the greatest fellowship in the world. In 1894, a committee picked the ring design similar to the one worn today. The cannon was added in 1900 and in 1939 various changes and additions gave the ring the appearance of today. In 1963, the name of the crest of the ring was changed from A&M College of Texas to Texas A&M University. Traditionally, undergraduates at A&M proudly wear the ring with the class number facing the back of the hand. In the early years of the College, Cadets turned the ring around so that the class number faced the world at the annual Ring Dance (the last social function of the year). The tradition of turning the ring around has now become a part of graduation ceremonies. As a group, the graduates stand, remove their ring, and replace it on their finger with the class number facing the world.

M. Final Review

The culmination of each year is Final Review. Two military reviews are conducted. In the first review, cadets march in the position held during the current school year, under the command of those who have held positions of leadership and responsibility. The Corps of Cadets demonstrates its professionalism, discipline, and marching precision under the leadership of the departing senior class. In the second review, each cadet makes his/her first appearance in the role he/she will assume the next school year. The outgoing senior class is the reviewing party for the second review, as the new cadet leadership they helped train, honors them as a class by demonstrating their ability to assume command of the Corps of Cadets. This is the only time the Corps marches without a “Fish” class. One of the most emotional ceremonies in the Corps, Final Review signifies to each senior that four of the best years in their lives, namely participation of the Corps of Cadets, has come to a close.

N. Senior Boots

Cadets look forward to Final Review at the end of their junior year when they can finally step into their senior boots which they will continue to wear throughout their senior year.

The wearing of boots dates to 1914, when the Corps changed from the West Point style uniforms to the national cadet wardrobe. In 1921, they were made by Jack Alesci at Randolph Army Air Field in San Antonio. In 1925, the English style of boot became the traditional senior boot we still see today, and the boot was officially designated as part of the Senior Cadet's uniform. To meet the needs of the Senior Cadets in 1926, Lucchese's in San Antonio started making boots. A local competition sprang up in 1929. Joseph Holick set up his shop in Northgate in the same location where it remained until 2006 when it moved to Wellborn Road. In 1932, Holick's price for a pair of boots was around $32.50. During World War II, boots could not be made due to the rationing of leather. So, incoming seniors had to buy their boots from former students. Another change came in 1966 that made the look of each and every senior more uniform – all boots must be of medium brown color.

O. Corps Brass Insignia

The following description explains the significance and the background of the insignia of the Corps of Cadets:

Crossed in the background are a sword, representing soldierly virtues and military tradition, and a fasces, representing the statesman. Superimposed on these is a shield and helmet representing the knight, for the knightly gentleman. Above it is a scroll upon which is written in Latin "Per Unitatem Vis" – through unity strength. These represent the ideals of the inscription that appear on the pedestal of the Lawrence Sullivan Ross statue – soldier, statesman, knightly gentleman.

Corps Brass is a unifying symbol of a cadet's commitment to strength, intelligence, and service as a soldier, statesman, and knightly gentleman in the Corps of Cadets. Awarded during the fall semester of fish year, cadets earn their Corps Brass every day through their honorable actions.

The Corps Brass Oath is administered by the Corps Commander upon the fish earning their Corps Brass: "I do solemnly swear, I will strive to embody the tenacity of a soldier, the intellect of a statesman, and the selflessness of a noble knight. I will execute these ideals with dignity, I will root my actions in self-discipline, I will cultivate my character with enduring pride. By accepting this Brass, I reaffirm acceptance of these values. By wearing this emblem on my uniform, I bridge decades of history between the Aggies who wore this brass and my brothers and sisters who wear it today. I pledge to earn my Corps Brass every day by my honorable actions. I will hold myself and my fellow cadets to this standard. We will not falter. We will not fail— For through unity of purpose, we find strength."

P. Aggie Band Lyre

The Aggie Band lyre, worn by members of the Fightin' Texas Aggie Band, has a long history within the Corps of Cadets. No one is quite sure of the first appearance of the lyre, but pictures and literature establish its presence in the late 1890's to 1900. It is a holdover from days when elements of the then all-Army Corps of Cadets were housed as units of cavalry, artillery, infantry, and other branches. Since the Band's members came from all branches, they decided to distinguish themselves by wearing large band lyres. The band lyre has since become the traditional designation for the Aggie Band. Band fish are awarded their lyre in their fall semester. The lyre becomes the most prized decoration a cadet receives while a member of the band.

Q. Memorial Student Center (MSC)

"Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends." John 15:13

Following the conclusion of World War II, the alumni wanted to build a memorial to honor all Aggies who lost their lives during the World Wars. At the same time, the students wanted to build a student center. The alumni and the students put their ideas together and built the MSC. It was dedicated on Muster Day (April 21) in 1951 to all Aggies who gave their lives in wars past or future. To the north of the MSC, trees surround O.R. Simpson Drill Field to honor the Aggies who gave their lives in World War I. In the front hallway, there are pictures of the eight Aggies who have been awarded the Congressional Medal of Honor. Under each photograph, their medal is displayed along with a brief citation of their heroic efforts.

The MSC is a living memorial. Students show their respect by removing their headgear upon entering the building and by not walking on the grass surrounding the building. Cadets are required to wear the Class B or a more formal uniform whenever visiting the MSC.

R. Reveille

Reveille is the official mascot of Texas A&M University. Reveille I came to Texas A&M in January 1931. A group of cadets hit a small black and white dog on their way back from Navasota. They picked up the dog and brought her back to school so they could care for her. The next morning, when "Reveille" was sounded, she started barking. She was named after this morning wakeup call. The following football season, she was named the official mascot, when she led the band onto the field during its halftime performance. When Reveille I died on January 18, 1944, she was given a formal military funeral on the gridiron of Kyle Field. She was then buried at the north entrance to the field, establishing the precedent for all future Reveilles, facing the scoreboard, so they could always watch the Aggies outscore their opponent. When Kyle Field added "The Zone," the graves of past Reveilles were relocated to the plaza north of "The Zone" and a special scoreboard was erected on the north face of "The Zone" that could be seen from the grave sites.

Reveille is the most revered animal on campus. Company E-2 has the privilege of taking care of Reveille. If she is sleeping on a cadet's bed, that cadet must sleep on the floor. Cadets address Reveille as "Miss Rev, ma'am." No official record exists on how this tradition originated, but Aggie legend holds that if Reveille barks while in class with her handler, the professor may choose to dismiss the class, but it is not required.

Appendix C: SONGS OF AGGIELAND

THE SPIRIT OF AGGIELAND

Some may boast of prowess bold
Of the school they think so grand
But there's a spirit can ne'er be told
It's the spirit of Aggieland.

CHORUS

We are the Aggies, the Aggies are we True to each other as Aggies can be
We've got to fight, boys
We've got to fight!
We've got to fight for Maroon and White.
After they've boosted all the rest,
They will come and join the best.
